Women, Agency and Religion Ilaria Valenzi, 2024-11-28 On both Mediterranean shores women's agency is articulated by new social and legal actors that face the religious factor both as an asset and as a brake This book explores how female agency is defined and takes place in the region The collection brings together contributions of both theoretical and thematic nature mapping various experiences on the public role of women in the Mediterranean context In particular the book relates the two sides observing affinities and differences in the affirmation of women's agency This synoptic approach avoids essentialist contraposition and dialectic between different cultural religious and political universes and emphasizes the role of a common geopolitical space where women's agency is playing an increasingly decisive role in the building and defense of constitutional democratic political systems The reflection is enriched by the specific analysis of the role of a religious factor in the process of affirmation or in contrast as a restraint on women's agency The book focuses both on the role of women believers in the processes of transformation of the political contexts of the North African and Euro Mediterranean area and on the role of women within religions questioning from inside the patriarchal traditions of the latter The book applies a multidisciplinary approach to the theme of women's agency in which law sociology theology and philosophy interact with each other As such it will be a valuable resource for those working in the areas of Human Rights Law Law and Religion Socio legal Studies and Gender Studies
