Love and rockets collection. Locas Jaime Hernandez, 2014 Unbelonging Iván A. Ramos, 2023-07-11 How Latinx artists engage in sonic subcultures to reject neoliberal definitions of belonging What is the connection between the British rock star Morrissey and the Latinx culture of transnational unbelonging What is the relevance of dyke chords in Chicana feminist punk and lesbian dissolution In what ways can dissonant sounds challenge systems of dominance Unbelonging answers these questions and more through an exploration into Mexican and US based Latinx artists writers and creators use of the discordant sounds of punk metal and rock to give voice to the aesthetic of unbelonging a rejection of consumerist and nationalist mentalities Iván A Ramos argues that racial identity and belonging have historically required legible forms of performance Sound has been the primary medium that amplifies and is used to assign cultural citizenship and for Latinx individuals legibility is essential to music perceived as traditional and authentic to their national origins In the context of twentieth century neoliberal policies which cemented the concept of citizen within logics of consumerism and capitalism Ramos turns to focus on Latinx artists writers and audiences who produce experimental and often inauthentic performances and installations in sonic subcultures to reject new definitions of economic citizenship Organized around studies of a number of artists all whom are explored through the methodological frameworks of sound studies performance studies and queer theory Unbelonging unearths how their very different genres of music share a unifying theme of dissonance With the backdrop of neoliberalism's attempt to define citizenship in relation to economic and cultural legibility Unbelonging offers an urgent analysis of how these oft overlooked queer and feminist performers and fans used sonic illegibility to challenge gender norms official definitions of citizenship and narratives of assimilation Ultimately these forms of inauthenticity move beyond negation and become ways to imagine alternative realities Rain Taxi Review of Books, 2004 British Bulletin of Publications on Latin America, the Caribbean, Portugal and Spain, 2003 The Hernandez Brothers Enrique García, 2017-07-18 This study offers a critical examination of the work of Gilbert and Jaime Hernandez Mexican American brothers whose graphic novels are highly influential The Hernandez brothers started in the alt comics scene where their Love and Rockets series quickly gained prominence They have since published in more mainstream venues but have maintained an outsider status based on their own background and the content of their work Enrique Garcia argues that the Hernandez brothers have worked to create a new American graphic storytelling that while still in touch with mainstream genres provides a transgressive alternative from an aesthetic gender and ethnic perspective The brothers were able to experiment with and modify these genres by taking advantage of the editorial freedom of independent publishing This freedom also allowed them to explore issues of ethnic and gender identity in transgressive ways Their depictions of latinidad and sexuality push against the edicts of mainstream Anglophone culture but they also defy many Latino perceptions of life politics and self representation The book concludes with an in depth interview with Jaime and Gilbert Hernandez that touches on and goes beyond the themes explored in the book The Publishers Weekly ,2008 Love and Rockets ,1985-04 Poliester ,1993 Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 ,2008-02 The Complete Love & Rockets: Love and rockets X Jaime Hernandez,1986 The Complete Love and Rockets: Love & rockets X Gilbert Hernandez,1988 A Love and Rockets Collection Jaime Hernandez,1989 Volumes cover the Hernandez Brothers work from the first Love Rockets series 1982 1996 calendar illustrations from 1989 1993 covers from the series and hard to find drawings from various publications The Complete Love & Rockets: Locas in Love Jaime Hernandez,1986
