Cli Fi Novel Advanced Strategies:

Cli-Fi and Class Debra J. Rosenthal, Jason de Lara Molesky, 2023-10-09 Since its emergence in the late twentieth century climate fiction or cli fi has concerned itself as much with economic injustice and popular revolt as with rising seas and soaring temperatures. Indeed with its insistent focus on redressing social disparities cli fi might reasonably be classified as a form of protest literature. As environmental crises escalate and inequality intensifies literary writers and scholars alike have increasingly scrutinized the dual exploitations of the earth's ecosystems and the socioeconomically disadvantaged. Cli Fi and Class focuses on the representation of class dynamics in climate change narratives. With fifteen essays on the intersection of the economic and the ecological addressing works ranging from the novels of Joseph Conrad, Cormac McCarthy and Octavia Butler to the film Black Panther and the Broadway musical Hadestown this collection unpacks the complex ways economic exploitation impacts planetary well being and the ways climatic change shapes those inequities in turn.

Reimagining Science Fiction Gary Westfahl, 2025-10-31 In the first decades of the twenty first century science fiction literature has been transformed in many ways as the genre has reacted to the dominating influence of films, television and video games, the growing popularity of fantasy, the rise of young adult science fiction and graphic novels, the impact of the internet and social media and the increasing diversity of the authors, characters and often non Western settings. The essays making up this volume address these and other changes in two ways. Some consider new critical approaches to science fiction in response to changing circumstances including analyses of how evolutionary psychology explains today's science fiction, the emerging subgenre of cli fi exploring the effects of climate change, the use of science fiction in different areas of the college curriculum and a statistical method for identifying works of science fiction. Others examine significant new authors such as Nalo Hopkinson, Charles Stross, Paolo Bacigalupi, Suzanne Collins, Mira Grant, John Sandford and David Mura. Contributors include science fiction author Howard V. Hendrix and experts in the fields of Chinese studies, gender studies, literature, philosophy and religion.

Writing the Past in Twenty-First-Century American Fiction Alexandra Lawrie, 2022-07-11 Writing the Past in Twenty First Century American Fiction examines contemporary novels profoundly shaped by a sense of historical consciousness. Authors including Ben Lerner, Colson Whitehead, Dana Spiotta, Hari Kunzru and Garth Greenwell each use flashbacks, historical parallels and non sequential narrative arrangements to emphasise the re emergence in a twenty first century context of historical structures and circumstances. This study explores how these frequent moments of temporal slippage amount to a falling out of time as characters are forced to confront the past crises which continue to exert pressure on their own contemporary moment.

Questioning Borders Robin Visser, 2023-09-12 Indigenous knowledge of local ecosystems often challenges settler colonial cosmologies that naturalize resource extraction and the relocation of nomadic hunting, foraging or fishing peoples. Questioning Borders explores recent ecoliterature by Han and non Han Indigenous writers of China and Taiwan, analyzing relations among humans, animals, ecosystems and the cosmos in search of alternative possibilities for creativity and consciousness Informed by extensive field research Robin Visser compares literary works by Bai Bunun Kazakh Mongol Tao Tibetan Uyghur Wa Yi and Han Chinese writers set in Xinjiang Tibet Inner Mongolia Southwest China and Taiwan sites of extensive development migration and climate change impacts Visser contrasts the dominant Han Chinese cosmology of center and periphery that informs what she calls Beijing Westerns with Indigenous and hybridized ways of relating to the world that challenge borders binaries and hierarchies By centering Indigenous cosmologies this book aims to decolonize approaches to ecocriticism comparative literature and Chinese and Sinophone studies as well as to inspire new modes of sustainable flourishing in the Anthropocene Crisis and Communitas Dorota Sajewska, Małgorzata Sugiera, 2023-05-29 This book is a critical transdisciplinary examination of a broad range of philosophical ideas theoretical concepts and artistic projects of community in the 20th and 21st century in the context of global local social and political changes This volume opens new vistas by focusing on carefully selected instances of multipronged crises in which existing concepts of commonality are questioned reformulated or even speculatively designed with a better future in view As many authors of this volume argue in the face of today's unprecedented global ecological and economic challenges speculative design is of utmost importance as it can foster alternative unthought forms of connectivity that go far beyond progressivist narratives of nation corporation and nuclear family Focusing on the situations of upheaval both historical and fabulated the collection not only examines how multipronged crises trigger antagonisms between egalitarian forms of communitas and the normative concept of the nation and other normative forms of communities as a community that separates and excludes It also looks closely at philosophical and artistic projects that strive to go beyond the dichotomies and typically extrapolated utopias envisaging new political economies ways of living and alternative relational structures It will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance studies cultural studies political studies media studies postcolonial and decolonial studies critical anthropology Contemporary Perspectives on Ecofeminism Mary Phillips, Nick Rumens, 2015-11-19 Why is ecofeminism still needed to address the environmental emergencies and challenges of our times Ecofeminism has a chequered history in terms of its popularity and its perceived value in conceptualizing the relationship between gender and nature as well as feeding forms of activism that aim to confront the environmental challenges of the moment This book provides a much needed comprehensive overview of the relevance and value of using eco feminist theories It gives a broad coverage of traditional and emerging eco feminist theories and explores across a range of chapters their various contributions and uniquely spans various strands of ecofeminist thinking The origins of influential eco feminist theories are discussed including key themes and some of its leading figures contributors include Erika Cudworth Greta Gaard Trish Glazebrook and Niamh Moore and outlines its influence on how scholars might come to a more generative understanding of the natural environment The book examines eco feminism's potential contribution for advancing current discussions and research on the relationships between the humans and more than humans that share our world This timely volume makes a
