Dark Romance Thriller Spotlight:

Cries In The Night, A Denver After Dark Romantic Suspense Kathy Clark, 2013-09-24 Who saves a hero Julie Lawrence is a Victim's Advocate for the Denver PD. Her job is to respond to domestic violence incidents, fires, car accidents, and other tragic events where people need help dealing with their darkest moments. She has had her own share of tragedies in the past which gives her empathy and a unique insight into victims and what they need to heal and move on with their lives. But she is better at giving advice than taking it and has closed herself off from sharing her life with anyone or anything except a stray tiger-striped gray cat. Rusty Wilson is a firefighter with a reputation for working hard and playing harder. He meets Julie while he is trying to save a burning house and she is protecting a battered wife and an unborn child. He is attracted to her but not ready to settle down. To his surprise, she resists even his most platonic attempts at developing a relationship. One day a typical call turns into a hostage situation and Julie rushes to the scene partly in her role of Victim's Advocate and partly because Rusty is involved. She finally accepts his offer of friendship and as they get to know each other better, they realize they have a lot in common. When a stalker starts playing a cat and mouse game with Julie, she and Rusty work together trying to figure out which of her past domestic violence cases has created a psycho who wants revenge. In her line of work, there are a lot of people who want her dead. Julie has no idea who is trying to kill her. The warnings had started out as just creepy but gradually turn into genuine threats on her life. Rusty provides the emotional and moral support she hadn't realized she needed until the danger increases. Their love affair starts in the heat of passion and ends when he finds out her secrets. Someone is watching and waiting. Julie has dedicated herself to saving other people.
