Post Apocalyptic Story Media Sensation:

Making Sense of Society Alex Khasnabish, 2022-05-30T00:00:00Z Grounded in the sister disciplines of sociology and anthropology this textbook is an accessible and critical introduction to contemporary social research Alex Khasnabish eschews the common disciplinary silos in favour of an integrated approach to understanding and practising critical social research Situated in the North American context the text draws on cross cultural examples to give readers a clear sense of the diversity in human social relations It is organized thematically in a way that introduces readers to the core areas of social research and social organization and takes an unapologetically radical approach in identifying the relations of oppression and exploitation that give rise to what most corporate textbooks euphemistically identify as social problems Focusing on key dynamics and processes at the heart of so many contemporary issues and public conversations this text highlights the ways in which critical social research can contribute to exploring understanding and forging alternatives to an increasingly bankrupt violent unstable and unjust status quo

Encyclopedia of the Environment in American Literature Geoff Hamilton, Brian Jones, 2014-01-10 This encyclopedia introduces readers to American poetry fiction and nonfiction with a focus on the environment broadly defined as humanity's natural surroundings from the discovery of America through the present The work includes biographical and literary entries on material from early explorers and colonists such as Columbus Bartolome de Las Casas and Thomas Harriot Native American creation myths canonical 18th and 19th century works of Jefferson Emerson Thoreau Whitman Hawthorne Twain Dickinson and others to more recent figures such as Jack London Ernest Hemingway Norman Mailer Stanley Cavell Rachel Carson Jon Krakauer and Al Gore It is meant to provide a synoptic appreciation of how the very concept of the environment has changed over the past five centuries offering both a general introduction to the topic and a valuable resource for high school and university courses focused on environmental issues

Climate Mobility Justice Elena Giacomelli, Pierluigi Musarò, 2025-11-08 This book explores how the intertwined challenges of climate change and human immobilities are being narrated governed and resisted From media and policies to art and activism the book investigates the stories we tell and the ones we silence about who moves who stays and who tries to govern human mobilities What emerges is a powerful critique of crisis narratives that legitimize fear repression and exclusion and a call for new imaginaries grounded in justice care and planetary belonging Engaging with voices from the Global South Indigenous epistemologies and feminist and decolonial thought this book offers a bold rethinking of how to confront one of the defining issues of our time It is essential reading for anyone interested in the future of climate politics migration and global solidarity

Making Sense of Popular Culture Eduardo de Gregorio-Godeo, Ángel Mateos-Aparicio Martin-Albo, 2017-05-11 The study of popular culture has come of age and is now an area of central concern for the well established domain of cultural studies In a context where research in popular culture has become closely intertwined with current debates within cultural studies this volume provides a selection of recent insights into the study of the popular from cultural studies perspectives Dealing with issues concerning representation cultural production and consumption or identity construction this anthology includes chapters analysing a range of genres from film television fiction drama and print media to painting in various contexts through a number of cultural studies oriented theoretical and methodological orientations The contributions here specifically focus on a wide variety of issues ranging from the ideological construction of identities in print media to the narratives of the postmodern condition in film and fiction through investigations into youth the dialogue between the canon and the popular in Shakespeare and the so called topographies of the popular in spatial and visual representation In exploring the interface between cultural studies and popular culture through a number of significant case studies this volume will be of interest not only within the fields of cultural studies but also within media and communication studies film studies and gender studies among others

Writing Landscape and Setting in the Anthropocene Philippa Holloway, Craig Jordan-Baker, 2024-05-31 This edited collection offers an in depth exploration of the role of landscape and place as literary settings It examines the multifaceted relationships between authors narrators and characters to their locales as well as broader considerations of the significance of the representation of landscape in a world deeply affected by human interventions Consisting of case studies of projects that engage with these questions as well as research examining the theoretical underpinnings of both creative practices processes and post textual analysis of published works this volume is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary in scope In the context of the climate crisis and a pandemic which has caused us to re evaluate the significance of landscape and the environment it responds to the need to engage current trends within the academy and in broader social debate about our relationship to the natural world

The Politics of Horror Damien K. Picariello, 2020-06-26 The Politics of Horror features contributions from scholars in a variety of fields political science English communication studies and others that explore the connections between horror and politics How might resources drawn from the study of politics inform our readings of and conversations about horror In what ways might horror provide a useful lens through which to consider enduring questions in politics and political thought And what insights might be drawn from horror as we consider contemporary political issues In turning to horror the contributors to this volume offer fresh provocations to inform a broad range of discussions of politics

Independent Video, Alternative Media ,1994 The Hollywood Reporter ,2008 Touch Richard Kearney, 2021-02-23 Our existence is increasingly lived at a distance As we move from flesh to image we are in danger of losing touch with each other and ourselves How can we combine the physical with the virtual our embodied experience with our global connectivity How can we come back to our senses Richard Kearney offers a timely call for the cultivation of the basic human need to touch and be touched He argues that touch is our most primordial sense foundational to our individual and common selves Kearney explores the role of touch from ancient wisdom traditions to modern therapies He demonstrates that a fundamental aspect of touch is interdependence its inherently reciprocal nature which offers a crucial corrective to our fixation with control Making the case for the complementarity of touch and technology this book is a passionate plea to recover a tangible sense of community and the joys of life with others

The Ethical Component in Experimental British Fiction Since the 1960's Susana Onega Jaén, Jean-Michel Ganteau, 2007
Some humanist critics contend that only realist texts have an ethical function that there is no ethical message behind the parodic and self conscious games played by experimental fiction and that since emotion neutralises the ethical faculties there is no ethical dimension in such excess peddling postmodernist genres and modes as kitsch melodrama and romance Yet one may argue that the defamiliarisation imposed by parody metafictional overkill and sundry devices symptomatic of emotional paroxysm on the realist text involves some measure of criticism of received truth and makes for the practice of a non deontic ethics of truths that is also fairly often an ethics of alterity This volume examines analytical evidence for the ethical component in key experimental British novels from the 1960 s to the present with special focus on John Fowles Brigid Brophy B S Johnson Angela Carter Peter Ackroyd A S Byatt Martin Amis Zadie Smith Will Self Ian McEwan and Julian Barnes 3ds
Max 6 Animation Barrett Fox, 2004 This text teaches the fundamentals of 3D graphics and animation including modelling surfacing texturing animating lighting and rendering Kwartalnik neofilologiczny, 1978 Fantasy & Science Fiction, 1994 The Athenaeum, 1872 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1859 Library Media Connection, 2003 Science-fiction Studies, 1993 Contemporary Authors Terrie M. Creating Emotion in Games David Freeman, 2004 Master the future in game development and design by learning how to create emotional immersion in games known as emotioneering Packed with 150 hands on techniques that can be applied immediately to any game in development Author is highly sort after and works with companies including Microsoft Sony Activision and Midway and also speaks regularly at the Game Developers Conference and DICE Foreword by Wil Wright the creator of The Sims Futures Worth Preserving Andressa Schröder, Nico Völker, Robert A. Winkler, Tom Clucas, 2019
Cultures as well as individuals continually balance the demands of nostalgia and sustainability as they construct historical narratives of futures worth preserving The aim of this volume is to explore those narratives and the underlying assumptions which inform them Drawing on a range of disciplines from the humanities and social sciences the chapters investigate cultural assumptions about which aspects of the past deserve to be remembered and which aspects of the present should be sustained for the future In the process they reveal how contemporary definitions of sustainability are informed by a nostalgic yearning for the past and how nostalgia is motivated by a reciprocal longing to sustain the past for the future
