The Lost World of Football Derek Hammond, Gary Silke, 2013-12-22 Return to The Lost World of Football through this Aladdin's cave of memories and memorabilia guaranteed to whisk you back to the magical atmosphere of a more innocent era of soccer. If you were one of the army of obsessive soccer kids at any time from England's World Cup win to the dawn of the Premiership you'll be relieved to hear that the cool kits and tabletop games, the mud mavericks and Melchester Rovers are back and here to stay. Flankers with triangular sideboards, petrol freebies and gluey sticker albums will soon once again be flickering past your senses like your long lost videos of the Sunday soccer highlights. But there's more to The Lost World of Football than a giant Kays catalogue of unforgettable soccer culture clutter and wistful yearning. Here are countless tried and tested methods to leave the 21st century behind and revisit your own soccer Golden Age. Panini UK Football Sticker Collections 1986-1993 Panini, 2023-10-26

Changing Faces of Cardiff Brian Lee, DB Publishing, 2008-09 The Changing Face of Cardiff is different from all the other Cardiff books published by Brian Lee in that it deals entirely with places rather than faces. For the first time ever the author uses colour images as well as black and white ones to depict the ever-changing capital city of Wales. As long ago as the 1860s Cardiffians were commenting, some sadly, on the rapid changes taking place in their town. And even today some residents claim that the city is losing some of its character owing to these many changes. It was Matthew Williams, curator of Cardiff Castle, who said that nothing evokes nostalgia quite like an old photograph and this fascinating book has more than 350 of them, including a selection of colour postcards which focus on the city's main streets, parks and docks area. In addition to photographic images, Lee has included the absorbing chapter 'Before The Camera' in which the Cardiff of old is seen through the eyes of artists such as J. Newman by way of a number of wonderful engravings. Gardeners' Chronicle, 1927 J. Lee
