Gig Americans Talk About Their Jobs:

Gig John Bowe, Marisa Bowe, Sabin Streeter, 2001-08-21 An engaging humorous revealing and refreshingly human look at the bizarre life threatening and delightfully humdrum exploits of everyone from sports heroes to sex workers Douglas Rushkoff author of Coercion Ecstasy Club and Media Virus This wide ranging survey of the American economy at the turn of the millennium is stunning surprising and always entertaining It gives us an unflinching view of the fabric of this country from the point of view of the people who keep it all moving The more than 120 roughly textured monologues that make up Gig beautifully capture the voices of our fast paced and diverse economy The selections demonstrate how much our world has changed and stayed the same in the three decades prior to the turn of the millennium If you think things have speeded up become more complicated and more technological you re right But people s attitudes about their jobs their hopes and goals and disappointments endure Gig s soul isn t sociological it s emotional The wholehearted diligence that people bring to their work is deeply inexplicably moving People speak in these pages of the constant and complex stresses nearly all of them confront on the job but nearly universally they throw themselves without reservation into coping with them Instead of resisting work we seem to adapt to it Some of us love our jobs some of us don t but almost all of us are not quite sure what we would do without one With all the hallmarks of another classic on this subject Gig is a fabulous read filled with indelible voices from coast to coast After hearing them you ll never again feel quite the same about how we work The Joy of Work?

Peter Warr, Guy Clapperton, 2010-10-04 Are you happy at work Or do you just grin and bear it We spend an average of 25% of our lives at work so it s important to make the best of it The Joy of Work looks at happiness and unhappiness from a fresh perspective It draws on up to date research from around the world to present the causes and consequences of low job satisfaction and gives helpful suggestions and strategies for how to get more enjoyment from work The book includes many interesting case studies about individual work situations and features simple self completion questionnaires and procedures to help increase your happiness Practical suggestions cover how to improve a job without moving out of it advice about changing jobs as well as how to alter typical styles of thinking which affect your attitudes This book is unique The subject is of major significance to virtually all adults people in jobs and those who are hoping to get one It is particularly distinctive in combining two areas that are usually looked at separately self help approaches to making yourself happy and issues within organizations that affect well being The Joy of Work has been written in a relaxed and readable style by an exceptional combination of authors a highly acclaimed professor of psychology and a widely published business journalist Bringing together research from business and psychology including positive psychology this practical book will make a big difference to your happiness at work and therefore to your whole life The ^Importance of Work in an Age of Uncertainty

David L. Blustein, 2019-06-03 Drawing from extensive interviews with working people across the US as well as insights from psychological research on work and careers The Importance of Work in an Age of Uncertainty provides compelling evidence that the nature of work in the US is eroding and with powerful psychological and social consequences Blue Collar, Theoretically John F. Lavelle, 2011-11-28 Though Marxism is the dominant philosophical theory applied to class in academia its real life inconsistencies particularly stereotyping have troubling effects on working class studies As a result of its hegemony alternative discourses have been effectively shut out of the academic world This critical work seeks to establish a new philosophy of class drawing on disciplines as diverse as sociology cognitive science anthropology and psychology and applying a decidedly Weberian hermeneutical lens Topics covered include a detailed exploration of Marxism a review of working class literature post marxist theories of class and the future of the field Making Music in Music City John

Markert, 2023-08-18 At least since the rise of the Nashville sound in the 1950s Tennessee's capital city has attracted numerous books and articles offering insight into the celebrity machine known as Music City But behind the artist in the limelight are a host of support personnel and contributors who shape the artist's music Of these myriad occupations within the music industry only two have received significant attention executives at the major labels and elite songwriters who have forged a path to the top of the charts In Making Music in Music City sociologist John Markert compiles and assesses more than one hundred interviews with industry professionals whose roles have been less often examined producers publishers songwriters management studio musicians and more The book naturally pivots around the country music industry but also discusses Nashville's role in other forms of modern music such as rock Christian and rap Markert's in depth interviews with key music professionals provide a fresh perspective on the roles of critical players in Nashville's music industry This book sheds light not only on the complexities of the industry and the occupational changes taking place but on the critical role of those who work behind the scenes to shape the music that ultimately reaches the public Through firsthand accounts Making Music in Music City analyzes just what it takes to create produce and disseminate the Nashville sound Encore Marc

Freedman, 2008-08-26 In one of the most significant social trends of the new century and the biggest transformation of the American workforce since the women's movement members of the baby boom generation are inventing a new phase of work Encore tells the stories of encore career pioneers who are not content or affluent enough to spend their next thirty years on a golf course These men and women are moving beyond midlife careers yet refusing to phase out or fade away As they search for a calling in the second half of life and focus on what matters most these individuals stand to transform the nature of work in America They also hold the potential to create a society that balances the joys and responsibilities of contribution across the generations in other words one that works better for all of us Digital Hustlers Casey Kait, Stephen Weiss, 2009-03-17

The commercial and cultural explosion of the digital age may have been born in California's Silicon Valley but it reached its high point of riotous chaotic exuberance in New York City from 1995 to 2000 in the golden age of Silicon Alley In that short stretch of time a generation of talented untested twentysomethings deluged the city launching thousands of new Internet ventures and attracting billions of dollars in investment capital Many of these young entrepreneurs were entranced by the infinite promise of the new media others seemed more captivated by the promise of infinite profits The innovations they launched from online advertising to 24 hour Webcasting propelled both the Internet and the tech stock boom of the late 90s And in doing so they sent the city around them into a maelstrom of brainstorming code writing fundraising drugs sex and frenzied hype until April 2000 when the NASDAQ zeppelin finally burst and fell at their feet In the pages of Digital Hustlers Alley insiders Casey Kait and Stephen Weiss have captured the excitement and excesses of this remarkable moment in time Weaving together the voices of more than fifty of the industry's leading characters this extraordinary oral history offers a ground zero look at the birth of a new medium Here are entrepreneurs like Kevin O Connor of DoubleClick Fernando Espuelas of StarMedia and Craig Kanarick of Razorfish commentators like Omar Wasow of MSNBC and Jason McCabe Calacanis of the Silicon Alley Reporter and inimitable Alley characters like party diva Courtney Pulitzer and Josh Harris the clown prince of Pseudo com Together they describe a world of sweatshop programmers and paper millionaires of cocktail napkin business plans and billion dollar IPOs of spectacular successes and flame outs alike Candid and open eyed bristling with energy and argument Digital Hustlers is an unforgettable group portrait of a wildly creative culture caught in the headlights of achievement Journal of Career Planning & Employment, 2001

Portfolio Development and the Assessment of Prior Learning Elana Michelson, Alan Mandell, 2004 For over thirty years portfolios have been used to help adult learners gain recognition for their prior learning and take greater control of their educational experiences The portfolio has become a distinctive means of assessing such learning serving as a meaningful alternative to conventional papers and standardized testing Portfolio Development and the Assessment of Prior Learning Perspectives Models and Practices provides a primer of flexible approaches to shaping and conducting portfolio development courses It offers practitioners in the field an extensive range of model assignments readings and classroom activities each organized around a specific theme Academic Orientation The Meaning of Education Personal Exploration Learning from the Outsider Within The World of Work and Careers and Dimensions of Expertise Twelve case studies by practitioners in the field then show how academics in the US and around the English speaking world have adapted the portfolio to changing circumstances in order to deliver academically rich educational services for adults These case studies highlight portfolio development in the context of web based instruction changing institutional imperatives service to historically disenfranchised groups partnerships with industry and cross institutional cooperation In addition to serving as a valuable hands on resource for practitioners Portfolio Development and the Assessment of Prior Learning locates portfolios and assessment in a broad social and intellectual context Thus the authors also offer an historical overview of the usefulness of portfolios in the assessment of prior learning and then consider their use in the future given current trends in higher education for adults The book explores the implications of a changing educational landscape in which new student populations budgetary pressures and understandings of knowledge both enrich and challenge student centered approaches such as portfolios The approaches and case studies are not only valuable to adult educators but equally to faculty in higher education concerned with the development of competency and outcomes based assessment

Psychology and Work Today Duane P. Schultz, Sydney Ellen Schultz, 2002 This book presents fundamental theory methods and practical applications of grey systems theory absorbing recent theoretical and applied advances and vividly presenting the overall picture of this new theory and its frontal research activities

Journal of Anthropological Research , 2021

The Social Organization of Work Teresa A. Sullivan, Randy Hodson, 2002 The authors combine their key areas of interest industrial sociology occupations and professions to present a unified view of the sociology of work The text s analytical approach to the study of work not only identifies and discusses substantive issues but also allows students the opportunity to better develop analysis reasoning and argumentative skills Chapter topics are discussed within the framework of the text s key five themes technology global perspectives class relations gender and race The world of work how it is changing and the implications of these changes for individuals and families is thoroughly explored in this contemporary and student relevant text

The Industry Standard , 2001

Discipline and Governmentality at Work Donald J. Winiecki, 2006 How we know ourselves how we are known by the institutions in which we work and how we are known by our co workers and our families is increasingly affected in a constantly changing network of technologies and strategies In the workplace these technological forms are lashed together into systems and strategies that reflect a form of rationality and allow norms to arise seeing representing and knowing work and workers These norms and forms produce distinctly modern forms of subjectivity truth and power to make workers into subjects Tertiary service labor is the fastest growing form of paid work in the economic catchment of the West Mediation of labor through computers and telecommunication is also increasing at a remarkable rate Nonetheless there are few detailed analyses of subjectivity in technology mediated tertiary labor Drawn from ethnographic research using post structural analytics this book describes how a collection of technologies is taken up in a common form of tertiary labor call centers to produce truth knowledge power and modern forms of subjectivity and social subjects It also challenges assumptions of Marxian and management theory by demonstrating that workers are neither dominated nor liberated rather how they are made responsible for and caught up in the apparatus that renders them as subjects

Transforming Learning for the Workplace of the New Millennium - Book 3 Eleni Roulis, 2003-09-08 This book third in the Voyager Direction for Learning and Careers Set is part of a comprehensive curriculum package for grades 11-14. It will help develop partnerships between business organizations and educational institutions to create and implement effective school-to-career programs that prepare work-ready and career-bound students. Book three focuses on postsecondary curriculum. Special Features: A guide to postsecondary classroom instruction, worksite induction, and cross-discipline coordination. Detailed lesson plans are developmentally sequenced through the entirety of the curriculum. Hands-on activities are developed that students, parents, and teachers will find exciting. Consists of four parts: Preparing for the Voyager Program, The Classroom and Workplace Experience, The Roles and Responsibilities of all Stakeholders, and Voices from the Next Generation Critical Workers and Learners, which can also be purchased separately. Intended for multiple audiences including educators, administrators, business leaders, and organizations: community agencies, university and college teacher preparation programs, global cultural workers, and school districts.

Interiors, 2000-10      The Uncertain States of America Reader Noah Horowitz, Brian Sholis, 2006-04-07 This is undoubtedly a moment marked by a serious interest in the actions America is taking on the world stage, actions that have been described as a cause for grave concern. We do not attempt to authoritatively engage these concerns here, nor do we wish to insinuate that elevated interest in America's cultural affairs is somehow unique to our present historical moment. We do, however, think that this sampling of discourse by and about a country's visual artists leads to insights about its politics and society not gained elsewhere. At the very least, it gives a sense of what it is like to live in the United States today and results in some inspired debate. We hope that this book serves not only as a valuable compendium of recent writing about contemporary art but also as inspiration to seek further understanding of these Uncertain States. So Noah Horowitz and Brian Sholis note in the introduction to this unique compilation of writing around art and cultural politics in America since 2000. Published in collaboration with the Serpentine Gallery, London, and the Astrup Fearnley Museum of Modern Art, Oslo, as an addendum to the traveling exhibition Uncertain States of America curated by Daniel Birnbaum, Gunnar Kvaran, and Hans Ulrich Obrist, the USA Reader was designed by Dexter Sinister. It is a thought-provoking collection that will become an important sourcebook on American culture at the start of the new millennium. Contributors: Giorgio Agamben, Dora Apel, Jack Bankowsky, David Barringer, Bernadette Corporation, John Bove, et al., Johanna Burton, Paul Chan, Critical Art Ensemble, Trisha Donnelly, Andrea Fraser, Isabelle Graw, Tim Griffin, Matthew Jesse Jackson, Chris Kraus, Miwon Kwon, Robert Morris, Molly Nesbit, Seth Price, Kymberly N.
