brilliant case study of canon formation and of the role commercial and academic literary institutions have played in assessing Vietnam War fiction it exposes their complicity in the writing of recent American history and rebukes academic literary culture that speciously purports a radical calling for itself Beyond an academic audience this book will challenge all who are piqued by studies of the war and of Vietnam War fiction And it raises important questions about the interlocking interests and ideologies of literary culture the publishing industry the mass media and the academy With its exemplary command of actual history and its well documented investigation of the Vietnam fiction canon this book throws a probing light on a literary culture whose tastes and attitudes have helped enforce a conservative interpretation of the war In extraordinary readings of The Quiet American The Ugly American The Prisoners of Quai Dong The Laotian Fragments Dispatches The Things They Carried and In Country Warring Fictions provides a radical historical perspective on the fiction that emerged from the Vietnam War
