Gift Theology Contribution Kathryn Tanner:

The Gift of Theology Rosemary P. Carbine, Hilda P. Koster, 2015-12-01 Kathryn Tanner is undoubtedly one of the most important contemporary North American theologians. From landmark studies in systematic and constructive theology to economics, Tanner's work is a contribution of inestimable value, hallmarked by its depth, precision, provocativeness, and grace. Unifying the immense scope of her work is the particular vision of God's self-gift, an internal dynamic communal reality that is expressed outward in acts of love and generosity that are creation, incarnation, and capacious life in the Spirit. This vision as the grounding matrix of Tanner's theology has been extended beyond the disciplinary boundaries of theology in constructive explorations of economics, social and political theory, cultural studies, and ethics. This volume celebrates the vision and breadth of Tanner's unique contribution. Essays by established scholars, colleagues, and former students trace out the key loci and themes from theological method, the Trinity, Christology, creation, to economics, environmental and social ethics, and politics to generate constructive and ecumenical conversation that presents Tanner as an important contemporary public theologian.

Christ the Key Kathryn Tanner, 2010 Through the intensely intimate relationship that arises between God and humans in the incarnation of the Word in Christ, God gives us the gift of God's own life. This simple claim provides the basis for Kathryn Tanner's powerful study of the centrality of Jesus Christ for all Christian thought and life. If the divine and the human are united in Christ, then Jesus can be seen as key to the pattern that organizes the whole, even while God's ways remain beyond our grasp. Drawing on the history of Christian thought to develop an innovative Christ-centered theology, this book sheds fresh light on major theological issues such as the imago dei, the relationship between nature and grace, the Trinity's implications for human community, and the Spirit's manner of working in human lives. Originally delivered as Warfield Lectures at Princeton Theological Seminary, it offers a creative and compelling contribution to contemporary theology.

The Spirit Shaped Church Swarup Bar, 2021-02-23 In The Spirit Shaped Church, Swarup Bar argues that the church is defined by its relationship with others. A relational church depends on the porousness of its borders, which means that while a church has its distinctiveness, it ought to be open to negotiate relational engagements with the world around it. This sort of relationally distinct, permeable church is found to be possible through the leading of the Spirit and the work of Christ. Such engagement is found to be relevant in a plural, religious, cultural context and in situations of marginalization in India. The Spirit Shaped Church reflects an ongoing commitment on the part of Fortress Press to engage the needs of Christian communities around the world. The book is aimed at teachers, clergy, students, and anyone with an interest in the lived experience of Christians in India.

A Politics of Grace Christiane Alpers, 2018-04-19 Christiane Alpers discusses the contribution and role Christian theology plays in developing of the democratic life in post-Christendom societies. She discusses the three major approaches to this debate: public theology, Radical Orthodoxy, and post-liberal Protestantism, in order to illustrate the shared assumption that such an enhancement should be understood in terms of solving existing political problems The volume builds on and combines public theology's aspiration to craft a non-triumphant political theology fit for a post-Christendom context Radical Orthodoxy's hesitancy to embrace secularism as neutral centre for present democracies as well as post-liberalism's Christocentric outlook Alpers engages with a wide variety of thinkers such as John Milbank Graham Ward John Howard Yoder Kathryn Tanner and Edward Schillebeeckx to suggest that a political theology in the post-Christendom context could build on the faith that Christ alone has redeemed the whole world Desire, Gift, and Recognition Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2009-02-15 A major work in the philosophy of religion this book interprets the Jesus story in terms of postmodern philosophy particularly using Jacques Derrida's categories of desire gift and recognition Author Jan Olav Henriksen also attempts to reformulate Christology without resorting to such metaphysical concepts as substance transcendence etc While not denying traditional doctrines Henriksen explicates the meaning of Jesus' life and death in ways that engage contemporary philosophy and challenge contemporary academic Christians to rethink the basics of their faith and he outlines the possibility of a post-metaphysical Christology Henriksen's book is a clearly reasoned guide not only to the argument that Christology still has something to say to contemporary believers but also to ways in which theologians must learn to reconnect to everyday human experience American Book Publishing Record, 1988 Religious and Theological Abstracts, 2004 The Library Journal, 1993 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Library Journal, 1993 The Catholic Library World, 2002 Neither Calendar Nor Clock Piet Naudé, 2010-06-04 Adoption of a new confession is a rare event in church history This book offers an astute inside look at the contemporary Belhar Confession which arose out of the struggle against apartheid and was first adopted in 1982 by the colored Dutch Reformed Mission Church in South Africa Journal of Chinese Religions, 2004 Choice, 2002 T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Theology and Climate Change Hilda P.
