Girl In Hyacinth Blue:

Girl in Hyacinth Blue Susan Vreeland,2012-03-18 This New York Times bestseller explores the life and many owners of an imaginary Vermeer painting in an impressive debut collection of linked stories Publishers Weekly A Dutch painting of a young girl survives three and a half centuries of loss flood anonymity theft secrecy and even the Holocaust This is the story of its owners whose lives are influenced by its beauty and mystery Despite their many troubles and unsatisfied longings the girl in hyacinth blue has the power to inspire love in all its human variety This luminous story begins in the present day when a professor invites a colleague to his home to see a painting that he has kept secret for decades The professor swears it is a Vermeer but why has he hidden this important work for so long The reasons unfold in a series of events that trace the ownership of the painting back to World War II and Amsterdam and still further back to the moment of the work s inspiration As the painting moves through each owner s hands what was long hidden quietly surfaces illuminating poignant moments in multiple lives Susan Vreeland s characters remind us through their love of this mysterious painting how beauty transforms and why we reach for it what lasts and what in our lives is singular and unforgettable Vreeland s book is a work of art New York Post

Girl in Hyacinth Blue Susan Vreeland,2000-10-01 Chronicles the history of a painting and the lives with which it intersects from the artist s inspiration to its admiration by two art scholars three hundred years later

Writing

Vermeer Lilly Manon Davalan,2019 Cracking the Earth Beverly McFarland,Micki Reaman,2001 From Barbara Kingsolver to Julia Alvarez CALYX celebrates 25 years of literary discoveries A silver anniversary anthology

Writing and Filming the Painting

Laura M. Sager Eidt,2008-01-01 This innovative interdisciplinary study compares the uses of painting in literary texts and films In developing a framework of four types of ekphrasis the author argues for the expansion of the concept of ekphrasis by demonstrating its applicability as interpretive tool to films about the visual arts and artists Analyzing selected works of art by Goya Rembrandt and Vermeer and their ekphrastic treatment in various texts and films this book examines how the medium of ekphrasis affects the representation of the visual arts in order to show what the differences imply about issues such as gender roles and the function of art for the construction of a personal or social identity Because of its highly cross disciplinary nature this book is of interest not only to scholars of literature and aesthetics but also for scholars of film studies By providing an innovative approach to discussing non documentary films about artists the author shows that ekphrasis is a useful tool for exploring both aesthetic concerns and ideological issues in film This study also addresses art historians as it deals with the reception of major artists in European literature and film throughout the 20th century

Art and the Artist in Society Jane Elizabeth Alberdeston,Elsa Luciano Feal,José Jiménez-Justiniano,2013-07-16 Art and Artist in Society is a compilation of essays that examine the nexus between artists the art they create and society These essays consider how art has changed its form and role both to accommodate newer trends and to fully participate in society Divided into six thematic sections the book examines the works of a diverse group of artists working in a range of art forms

such as writers Milan Kundera and Judith Ortiz Cofer filmmakers Humberto Sol s and Walter Salles performers photographer Daniel Joseph Mart nez and feminist activists Suzanne Lacy and Leslie Labowitz The analyses of the work of these artists and other artists offer readers an opportunity to explore a number of important issues in art today such as the representation of the Other the exploration of alternative sources of knowledge and the construction of the self For the array of works it analyzes this book offers fascinating insights into the art and the artists of the 20th and 21st centuries

Life Studies

Susan Vreeland,2005-11-29 With her richly textured novels Susan Vreeland has offered pioneering portraits of the artist s life Now in a collection of profound wisdom and beauty she explores the transcendent power of art through the eyes of ordinary people Life Studies begins with historic tales that rather than focusing directly on the great Impressionist and Post Impressionist masters themselves render those on the periphery their lovers servants and children as their personal experiences play out against those of Manet Monet van Gogh and others Vreeland then gives us contemporary stories in which her characters a teacher a construction worker and an orphan for example encounter art in meaningful often surprising ways A fascinating exploration of the lasting strength of art in everyday life Life Studies is a dazzling addition to Vreeland s outstanding body of work

Enchanted Objects

Allan Hepburn,2010-03-27 Enchanted Objects investigates the relationship between visual art and contemporary fiction addressing the problems that arise when paintings deluxe books porcelains or statues are represented in contemporary novels The distinction between objects and art objects depends on aesthetics While some objects are authenticated through museum exhibits others are hidden broken neglected coveted hoarded or salvaged Allan Hepburn asks four broad questions about aesthetics and value What is a detail in visual art Is all art ornamental Does the value of an object increase because it is fragile What defines ugliness Contemporary novels such as Tracy Chevalier s Girl with a Pearl Earring Barry Unsworth s Stone Virgin and Bruce Chatwin s Utz offer implicit answers to these questions while critiquing museums and the determination to invest objects with value through display Addressing current debates in museum studies cultural studies art history and literary criticism Enchanted Objects develops an extensive theory of how contemporary literature engages with and relates to aesthetic objects
