The Quick-Start Library Guide Kelly Mayfield, Amy O. Milstead, 2025-09-04 Helps paraprofessionals and new school librarians begin their first school year with confidence New librarians and paraprofessionals often come to school library positions with little or no experience in library work and there s a gap in instructional information available for those who want to quickly increase their skill level This book helps professionals and paraprofessionals learn what they need to know to get started as well as pointing them to additional resources in areas where they might want more advanced information This practical guide teaches librarians and paraprofessionals to develop systems and create plans for programs and partnerships with teachers and other professionals to set them up for success during their first year in the library A timeline helps map out the rhythm of a school year The Quick Start Library Guide introduces paraprofessionals to library science topics such as cataloging collection development and weeding It covers topics specific to the school library such as reading levels book fairs and author visits Each section includes suggested resources for more in depth learning Librarians and paraprofessionals will be able to use this valuable straightforward guide to hit the ground running in their new role Cultivating Communication in the Classroom Lisa Johnson, 2017-02-23 Building 21st Century communication skills Students are expected to be innovators creative thinkers and problem solvers But what if they can t communicate their ideas persuasively Knowing how to share ideas is as crucial as the ideas themselves Unfortunately many students don t get explicit opportunities to hone this skill Cultivating Communication in the Classroom will help educators design authentic learning experiences that allow students to practice their skills Readers will find Real world insights into how students will be expected to communicate in their future careers and education Strategies for teaching communication skills throughout the curriculum Communication Catchers for igniting ideas Literature and Social Media Bronwen Thomas, 2020-01-31 From Instapoetry to BookTube contemporary literary cultures and practices are increasingly intertwined with social media In this lively and wide ranging study Bronwen Thomas explores how social media provides new ways of connecting with and rediscovering established literary works and authors while also facilitating the emergence of unique and distinctive forms of creative expression The book takes a 360 approach to the subject combining analysis of current forms and practices with an examination of how social media fosters ongoing collaborative discourse amongst both informal and formal literary networks and demonstrating how the participatory practices of social media have the potential to radically transform how literature is produced shared and circulated The first study of its kind to focus specifically on social media Literature and Social Media provides a timely and engaging account of the state of the art while interrogating the rhetoric that so often accompanies discussion of the new in this context The Spectator ,1899 Continent ,1923 Mark Lane Express ,1889 Time and Tide ,1954
