Child as Citizen Giuliana Fenech,2025-08-15 Contributions by Daniela Brockdorff Nina Christensen Jill Coste Katrin Dautel Justyna Deszcz Tryhubczak Giuliana Fenech Naomi Hamer Irena Barbara Kalla Anne Klomberg Sonali Kulkarni Elizabeth Leach Leung Ann Marie Murnaghan Emily Murphy Emilie Owens Nicola Parker Patrycja Poniatowska Meg Rosoff and Farriba Schulz Child as Citizen Agency and Activism in Children s Literature and Culture addresses children s and young adult agency and activism across literature and culture demonstrating how these forces influence child citizenship Contributors to this volume highlight the agentic voices and activist practices

that are growing across all spheres of young people's lives as well as the challenges to active citizenship that children growing up in unjust sociopolitical contexts face. The volume is interdisciplinary and draws on the sociology of childhood, children's literature studies, youth culture studies, media technology and cultural studies, and Anthropocene, ecofeminist, and disability studies. Agency occurs in and around literature and storytelling, and this collection establishes how it is always influenced by identity as well as geopolitics, how it is both subjective and collective, how it is cultural and embodied, and how, like citizenship, it is not a static status but rather an ongoing negotiation. In this collection, contributors invite readers to consider agency as a system of relations between children themselves, between children and adults, children and institutions, and children and nation states, as well as between children and the nonhuman. This book reviews the interconnectedness between these relationships and attempts to untangle some of the complications that emerge.

Atravesados Trevor Boffone, Cristina Herrera, 2025-02-17. Contributions by Frederick Luis Aldama, Trevor Boffone, T. Jackie Cuevas, Cristina Herrera, Alexander Lalama, Angel Daniel Matos, Regina Marie Mills, Joseph Isaac Miranda, Jesus Montaño, Domino Renee Perez, Regan Postma, Montaño, Cristina Rhodes, and Sonia Alejandra Rodriguez. Atravesados: Essays on Queer Latinx Young Adult Literature shows how Latinx queer YA writers discard the same old story and offer critical representations of queerness that broaden YA writing and insist on the presence of queer teens of color. Atravesados draws on foundational Chicana queer theorist Gloria Anzaldúa's notion of atravesados to speak to the spectrum of queer youth Latinidades as they materialize in YA literature. Los atravesados, according to Anzaldúa, are the squint-eyed, the perverse, the queer, the troublesome, the mongrel, the mulatto, the half-breed, the half-dead, in short, those who cross over, pass over, or through the confines of the normal. Los atravesados reside in the borderlands, space of ni de aquí, ni de allá, neither here nor there, present yet liminal, their queerness the very source of both frustration and empowerment, a paradox of joy and tragedy. Although written in 1987, Anzaldúa's theory speaks to the realities of queer Latinx teens that fill the pages of YA literature well into the twenty-first century. Characters such as Juliet from Gabby Rivera's Juliet Takes a Breath, Aaron from Adam Silvera's More Happy Than Not, or the titular Chulito from Charles Rice Gonzales's novel encompass the highs, lows, and everything in betweenness of queer Latinx teen lived experiences. This collection tells their stories. Contributors speak to the spectrum of queer youth Latinidades as they materialize in YA literature, paying close attention to representation and the ways youth are portrayed, whether accurate or stereotypical. Close attention is paid to books that succeed in broadening the field of YA, highlighting authors that draw from their own lived experiences and situate strong, fully developed characters. Taken together, these essays move beyond the page, explaining to readers why representation and authenticity matter in YA literature, as well as the far-reaching effects they can have for real-world queer Latinx teens.

Producing Children Peter C. Kunze, Victoria Ford Smith, 2025-04-15. Producing Children imagines the possibility, indeed the inevitability, of a creative relation between children as producers and consumers by revising the long-established hierarchical relation between adults and children. The chapters in this collection reveal that studying child produced culture complicates our received understandings of children s culture as culture by adults for children about children They also underscore children s literature as a cultural phenomenon that moves across and beyond genres forms and media As a whole this collection reveals that attention to child produced culture invites dialogue and collaboration across fields and disciplines invested in the critical understanding of children as embodied beings and childhood as both a stage of development and discursive construct with social political economic and cultural dimensions and influence With the ongoing vibrancy of childhood studies as a multidisciplinary area of inquiry studies of child produced culture provide scholars with an exciting opportunity to complicate enrich and expand theorization of childhood creativity children s culture and even children themselves
