scholars across disciplines this book argues that higher education has been compromised by its uncritical acceptance of our culture's standards of productivity busyness and speed Inspired by the Slow Movement contributors explain how and why university culture has come to value productivity over contemplation and rapidity over slowness Chapter authors argue that the arts and humanities offer a cogent critique of fast culture in higher education and reframe the discussion of the value of their fields by emphasizing the dialectic between speed and slowness The Spectator ,1899 Time and Tide ,1954

World Heritage Review ,2016 Government Reports Announcements & Index ,1983 The Farmers' Advocate and Home Magazine ,1931 Recovering the Lost Art of Reading Leland Ryken,Glenda Mathes,2021-03-02

A Christian Perspective on the Joys of Reading Reading has become a lost art With smartphones offering us endless information with the tap of a finger it's hard to view reading as anything less than a tedious and outdated endeavor This is particularly problematic for Christians as many find it difficult to read even the Bible consistently and attentively Reading is in desperate need of recovery Recovering the Lost Art of Reading addresses these issues by exploring the importance of reading in general as well as studying the Bible as literature offering practical suggestions along the way Leland Ryken and Glenda Faye Mathes inspire a new generation to overcome the notion that reading is a duty and instead discover it as a delight 30-Day Reading Challenge Laneshia Lamb,2018-02-06 As an education enthusiast writing mentor and author

Laneshia Lamb is excited to commemorate National Reading Month with a 30 Day Reading and Writing Challenge Comprehension continues to be a concern in classrooms across the country and Laneshia believes practice builds performance To aid children in their practice she created this journal The interior has space for 30 different book titles and summaries The overall objective is to encourage daily reading and writing It's common knowledge that impacts are made through connection The children are asked to connect the stories they read to their own lives and experiences It is in the repeated connecting of text to personal experience that children will begin to critically think and ultimately comprehend
