The Routledge Companion to Children's Literature and Culture Claudia Nelson, Elisabeth Wesseling, Andrea Mei-Ying Wu, 2023-11-30 Focusing on significant and cutting edge preoccupations within children s literature scholarship The Routledge Companion to Children s Literature and Culture presents a comprehensive overview of print digital and electronic texts for children aged zero to thirteen as forms of world literature participating in a panoply of identity formations Offering five distinct sections this volume Familiarizes students and beginning scholars with key concepts and methodological resources guiding contemporary inquiry into children s literature Describes the major media formats and genres for texts expressly addressing children Considers the production distribution and valuing of children s books from an assortment of historical and contemporary perspectives highlighting context as a driver of content Maps how children s texts have historically presumed and prescribed certain identities on the part of their readers sometimes addressing readers who share some part of the author s identity sometimes seeking to educate the reader about a presumed other and in recent decades increasingly foregrounding identities once lacking visibility and voice Explores the historical evolutions and trans regional contacts and inter connections in the long process of the formation of global children s literature highlighting issues such as retranslation transnationalism transculturality and new digital formats for considering cultural crossings and renegotiations in the production of children s literature Methodically presented and contextualized this volume is an engaging introduction to this expanding and multifaceted field

Braille Book Review ,2017-03 Pedagogical Opportunities of the Review Genre Maarit Jaakkola,2024-06-28

Pedagogical Opportunities of the Review Genre unleashes the pedagogical potential of the review genre reframing the act of reviewing of cultural products as a communicative practice from a pedagogical perspective Negotiating between traditions of journalism and media studies and pedagogy the author presents a novel approach that will increase the readers understanding of an activity that is on the increase in an era where everyone can be a critic She identifies describes and develops genre based pedagogies in formal non formal and informal contexts of learning and teaching in order to recontextualize the review as a form of learning and rethink of its potential as an inclusive engaging and a transformative critical cultural practice This innovative and truly interdisciplinary study will interest students and researchers in the areas of media literacy digital media media and communication studies cultural studies sociology of arts and pedagogical studies in particular cultural journalism and criticism audience studies cultural production and cultural mediation as well as critical media pedagogy and literacy studies

Visioning Technologies Graham Cairns,2016-12-08 Visioning Technologies brings together a collection of texts from leading theorists to examine how architecture has been and is reframed and restructured by the visual and theoretical frameworks introduced by different technologies of sight understood to include orthographic projection perspective drawing telescopic devices photography film and computer visualization amongst others Each chapter deals with its own area and historical period of expertise organized sequentially to mark out and analyse the historical evolution of how architecture has been transformed by technologically induced shifts in human perception from the 15th century until today This book underlines the way in which architectural forms and design processes have developed historically in conjunction with the systems of sight we manufacture technologically and suggests this continues today Paradoxically it is premised on the argument that these technological systems tend in their initial formulations to obtain ever greater realism in our visualizations of the physical world
