Political Theory, Science Fiction, and Utopian Literature

Tony Burns,2010-02-19 Ursula K Le Guin s The Dispossessed is of interest to political theorists partly because of its association with anarchism and partly because it is thought to represent a turning point in the history of utopian dystopian political thought and literature and of science fiction Published in 1974 it marked a revival of utopianism after decades of dystopian writing According to this widely accepted view The Dispossessed represents a new kind of literary utopia which Tom Moylan calls a critical utopia The present work challenges this reading of The Dispossessed and its place in the histories of utopian dystopian literature and science fiction It explores the difference between traditional literary utopia and novels and suggests that The Dispossessed is not a literary utopia but a novel about utopianism in politics Le Guin s concerns have more to do with those of the novelists of the 19th century writing in the tradition of European Realism than they do with the science fiction or utopian literature It also claims that her theory of the novel has an affinity with the ancient Greek tragedy This implies that there is a conservatism in Le Guin s work as a creative writer or as a novelist which fits uneasily with her personal commitment to anarchism

Time machine: Utopia or Science Fiction Kristijan Zrinski, 2013-06-26 Seminar paper from the year 2012 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 3 0 University of Trier language English abstract This term paper deals with the question which literary genre does The Time Machine by H G Wells fit best into Should it be seen as a dystopian novel or should it be rather classified as a science fictional one and why is it so hard to classify As the novel shows characteristics for either genres the novel has to be analysed accurately In order to do so and find an answer to the main question I will point out and examine relevant passages in the text which will help classifying Wells' work Therefore it is essential to first of all define both literary genres These definitions are to include the origin of the genre main characteristics as well as appropriate background information As already mentioned the definitions will be followed by an in depth analysis of significant text passages Finally my conclusion is intended to sum up the most important findings and aims to present a classification based on the analysis in the main part

The Last Man Illustrated Mary Shelley, 2020-11-04 The Last Man is an apocalyptic dystopian science fiction novel by Mary Shelley which was first published in 1826 The book describes a future Earth at the time of the late 21st Century ravaged by an unknown pandemic which quickly sweeps across the world It also includes a discussion of English culture as a republic with Mary Shelley sitting in meetings of the House of Commons to gain an insight into the governmental political system of the romantic era Within the novel she dedicates it highly to her husband Percy Bysshe Shelley who drowned in a shipwreck four years before the book's publication It is also dedicated to her dear friend Lord Byron who adored the Greek isles which were eventually his place of death The Last Man was severely suppressed at the time It was not until the 1960s that the novel resurfaced for the public as a work of fiction not prophesy The Last Man is the first piece of dystopian fiction published yet it is debated among literary critics whether The Last Man can be classed as a dystopian novel as it excludes political themes of repression and totalitarianism of the novels of later periods such as Orwell s Nineteen Eighty Four or Huxley s Brave New World
