Seriality in the Streaming Era Lene Heiselberg, Bo Kampmann Walther, Jakob Isak Nielsen, Rasmus Rønlev, 2025-09-12

Seriality in the Streaming Era explores the dynamic transformation of serialized storytelling in the digital era where platforms like Netflix Disney and Apple Podcasts have redefined how narratives are created consumed and experienced. This book examines the profound impact of streaming technologies on both fictional and nonfictional series offering an in depth analysis of how these formats have evolved. Drawing from case studies across a wide range of media from television to podcasts and social media platforms like Facebook and Snapchat this book highlights how serialized storytelling has adapted to diverse formats and consumption habits. The authors explore key trends such as platform specific narrative structures audience engagement and the blending of genres in both entertainment and journalism. With a focus on both the aesthetic and functional shifts in seriality the book offers theoretical insights into the future of storytelling in a media landscape increasingly shaped by data driven strategies and audience participation. Furthermore the book tackles how seriality navigates the delicate balance between creativity and commercial demands. As a significant contribution the book features interviews with key industry professionals in the field of serial media production. Seriality in the Streaming Era is an essential resource for scholars students and industry professionals as well as anyone curious about the evolving role of serialized narratives in shaping modern media culture. Structure and Dynamics of Discussions on the Social Media Platform Reddit Riccardo Carlucci, 2024 The last fifteen years have witnessed a tremendous rise in the impact of online social media on our lives. Platforms such as Facebook Twitter YouTube and Reddit have radically changed the way we communicate and consume information. Understanding the dynamics of these platforms is therefore a significant research challenge particularly in relation to the study of how mis information spreads across online spaces. In this work we focus specifically on Reddit one of the most popular and influential discussion platforms on the Internet. From a structural perspective Reddit is organised.
