The primary focus is on the remarkable manifestations of historical writing in relation to historical memory in the Frankish kingdoms of the eighth and ninth centuries. It considers the audiences for history in the Frankish kingdoms the recording of memory in new genres including narrative histories, cartularies and Libri memoriales and thus particular perceptions of the Frankish and Christian past. It analyses both original manuscript material and key historical texts from the Carolingian period a remarkably creative period in the history of European culture. Presentations of the past developed in this period were crucial in forming an historical understanding of the Greco-Roman and Judaeo-Christian past and in subsequent centuries of early medieval Europe. They also played an extraordinarily influential role in the formation of political ideologies and senses of identity within Europe    Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1879    Dictionary Catalogue of the Byzantine Collection of the Dumbarton Oaks Research Library, Washington, D.C. Dumbarton Oaks,1975    Subject-catalogue of the Library of the College of New Jersey, at Princeton Princeton University.
