Rachael Ray Jayne Keedle, 2009-08-07 Highlights the life and accomplishments of the cook who first became famous through her shows on the Food Network. Rachael Ray 365 Rachael Ray, 2005 Rachael Ray Shaina C. Indovino, 2014-09-29 In the last few decades more and more people are going to college to further their education. It's hard to become a scientist, a professor, or a businessperson without getting some sort of college degree, but college isn't always necessary to achieve success. Some people are ready to enter the workforce right after high school. Rachael Ray was one of those people. The cooking television and talk show star began her career working in restaurants and for a little while at the candy counter at Macy's in New York City. After becoming the chef at a prestigious hotel restaurant, Rachael worked her way from sous chef to superstar. Today shows like 30 Minute Meals, Rachael Ray's Tasty Travels, and of course Rachael Ray have made Rachael one of the most successful people in television. And what's most amazing about Rachael's story is that she's done it all without a college degree. This Must Be the Place Rachael Ray, 2021-11-09 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Rachael Ray presents 125 recipes straight from her home kitchen in upstate New York with personal stories on loss, gratitude, and the special memories that make a house a home. NAMED ONE OF THE BEST COOKBOOKS OF THE YEAR BY FOOD NETWORK. I wanted to write this book because for the first time in my fifty-two years everyone on the planet was going through the same thing at the same time. We were all feeling the same fear, heartsickness, worry, and sadness, but due to the nature of the virus it was hard to connect. I connect through cooking, and I noticed that's what many others were doing as well. We took to the kitchen to share something of ourselves, and cooking became the discipline, diversion, and devotion that got us through. You may think you know Rachael Ray after decades of TV appearances and dozens of books, but 2020 changed us all, and it changed her too, her life, and her direction. During the early months of the pandemic in upstate New York, far away from her New York City television studio, Rachael Ray and her husband John went to work in their home kitchen, hosting the only cooking show on broadcast TV. At her kitchen counter with the help of her iPhone cameraman John, Rachael produced more than 125 meals, everything from humble dishes composed of simple pantry items like One Pot Chickpea Pasta or Stupid Good Silly Easy Sausage Tray Bake to more complex recipes that satisfy a craving or celebrate a moment like Porcini and Greens Risotto or Moroccan Chicken Tagine. This Must Be the Place captures the words, recipes, and images that will forever shape this time for Rachael and her family, offering readers inspiration to rethink and rebuild what home means to them now. Rachael Ray (People We Should Know) (Large Print 16pt) Jayne Keedle, 2011-05 She may have started out hosting a simple cooking show, but today Rachael Ray is one of the
