The Mystery of Mysteries Samuel Coale, 2000 Four American mystery writers have contributed new dimensions to the mystery form Tony Hillerman's Navajos and their customs Amanda Cross's Carolyn Heilbrun's academics and their feminist credentials or lack thereof James Lee Burke's Southern Louisiana Cajuns and his own fiercely moral take on Southern gothic fiction and Walter Mosley's urban blacks and their culture have challenged the conventional mystery's focus. Using feminist and black critical theory, mythic and historical patterns, and literary genre theory, Samuel Coale examines these writers' works and investigates the compromises that each is forced to make when working within a recognizably popular literary form.

Critical Method and Contemporary Film Christopher K. Brooks, 2019-09-24 This volume offers film enthusiasts and teachers an investigation into what film critics do and examines what ideologies inform their evaluations. By employing recent television programs and films and comparing them to older ones, the study is able to trace changes in the methodologies of film and media critics. The work argues for the emergence of neofuturism as a chosen method of interpretation, contrasting with the dominance of postmodernism as the evaluative method through the early years of the new millennium. It also asks the questions: who evaluates film and why? In doing so, the study questions the criteria for film evaluation, the validity of some reviews, and asks the question: whether the evaluative system needs to change altogether.

MARY ELIZABETH BRADDON Ultimate Collection: Mystery Novels, Victorian Romances & Supernatural Tales Mary Elizabeth Braddon, 2023-12-10 In the Mary Elizabeth Braddon Ultimate Collection: Mystery Novels, Victorian Romances, Supernatural Tales, readers are invited to traverse a rich literary landscape where gothic suspense meets Victorian societal mores. Braddon's works are characterized by their intricate plotlines, vivid characterizations, and a compelling blend of suspense and romance that captivates the reader's imagination. The collection embodies the essence of the late 19th-century literary context, reflecting the cultural anxieties and shifting moral landscapes of a rapidly industrializing society while also invoking elements of the supernatural that challenge the rationality of the era. Mary Elizabeth Braddon, a pioneering feminist writer, gained prominence in the Victorian literary scene with her bold exploration of female agency and intricate character studies. Her own life experiences, including her challenging start and her role in the literary marketplace, undoubtedly influenced her narrative style and themes. Braddon's engagement with the Gothic tradition, as well as her commitment to addressing contemporary issues of class and gender, render her works deeply resonant and prescient. This collection is a must-read for enthusiasts of Victorian literature and the gothic genre, as it showcases Braddon's exceptional skill in weaving together mystery and romance.
