Planning Sabbaticals Robert C. Saler, 2019-11-01 Sabbaticals are becoming increasingly common practice in congregations and while there are many books on helping pastors prepare for their time away there are no texts that approach the experience with the congregation in mind from start to finish This guide for congregations and their pastors draws on nearly two decades of wisdom from the Lily Endowment Clergy Renewal Program and helps draw the conversation away from a pastor centric model and towards a holistic congregational framework for thinking about how the entire community can benefit from a pastor s sabbatical

When Better Isn't Enough Jill M. Hudson, 2004-02-01 Many sociologists and a growing number of church scholars have noted that we live in a time of transition from the modern era to the postmodern Whenever a shift of this magnitude occurs it leaves all of life including the church in flux We instinctively strive to stabilize the situation by re establishing what has worked in the past Increasingly however congregations are finding that the same old things done harder or better don't seem to make a difference Author Jill Hudson argues We must identify new criteria for success and perhaps even for faithfulness and hold ourselves accountable to them Approaching the postmodern era as a tremendous opportunity Hudson identifies 12 characteristics by which we can measure effective ministry for the early 21st century Based on those 12 criteria Hudson has created evaluation tools an early measuring stick to help congregations evaluate their work in this new era Not everything of the past is ineffective and best discarded she says nor will everything we try in the future be successful But by faithfully listening for God's guidance and carefully evaluating progress using Hudson's tools looking at the ministry of the whole people of God as well as that of the professional staff congregations can improve their ministry help members and staff grow in effectiveness deepen a sense of partnership and add new richness to the dialogue about the congregation's future
