Commissioning And Purchasing The Social Work Skills Series:

The Task-centred Book Peter Marsh, Mark Doel, 2005 Peter Marsh and Mark Doel's new book is a radical departure from traditional literature on social work methods. The main reference point is the voice of practitioners, service users and carers as researched and developed by the authors over twenty years. Using Groupwork Mark Doel, 2006 Written by an experienced groupworker and academic, this book promotes greater knowledge and understanding of groupwork and group processes particularly in social work and social care settings. Incorporating both theory and practice, it provides a practical guide to those considering groupwork and further inspiration for those already involved. The book incorporates a number of case examples of groups run in mainstream social work, social care and multidisciplinary settings. Skills based in approach, this original text includes illustrative group examples, quotes from groupworkers, key learning points based on research activities to develop practice, suggestions for further reading. Published in association with Community Care Magazine, the book meets the changing needs of today's students and practitioners in social care and is a welcome addition to the current literature.

Working with Older People John Harris, Denise Tanner, 2007-10-11 Working with older people has become an increasingly important part of social work education and practice. Whether studying community care, adult services, human growth and development or social work processes and interventions, this book will be a vital source of information and help. Working with Older People provides a framework of knowledge, skills and values pertinent to qualifying social work courses and the new post-qualifying award in Social Work with Adults, including discussion of ideas about human development and theories of older age, legislation, social policy and social welfare, skills for working with older people, assessment and care planning, partnership working. Written by two experienced educators and practitioners, this key text facilitates individual or group learning through features such as objectives for each chapter, case studies and further reading suggestions. There are numerous activities throughout the book and the final chapter contains pointers to consider for all of the activities. It will be essential reading for social work students and qualified social workers.

Working with Vulnerable Adults Bridget Penhale, Jonathan Parker, 2007-11-22 Working with Vulnerable Adults provides an understanding of current practice in social and health care, examining abuse of vulnerable adults and the ways in which social policy, welfare services and practitioners may help. It is essential reading for students and practitioners interested in finding out more about this important field.

Practising Welfare Rights Neil Bateman, 2006-02-01 Practising Welfare Rights aims to improve awareness among people working in social work and advice agencies about the skills required for effective welfare rights work and offers guidance for managers and other professionals about how to develop a welfare rights service. Written by a well-known author, trainer and adviser on welfare rights issues, this book includes learning objectives, activities to test understanding, illustrative case studies. It also covers core welfare rights skills such as interviewing, legal research, negotiation and advocacy and discusses the historical, social and economic forces which have shaped welfare rights practice as well as the politics of welfare. An accessible book which highlights the place of welfare rights practice in modern society Going Local John Pierson, 2007-09-12 Going Local explains how social workers can develop approaches to neighbourhood work engage with users and their locality and contribute to strengthening local communities and how these principles work out in practice in specific services web introduction fin fan cooler is a kind of heat exchanger that uses the air for cooling medium it is required a wide surface area for heat transfer it is applied to finned tube for increasing the heat transfer surface and compact design of construction area and the process fluid can be cooled by the natural air it is not required a coolant
