Common Grace And The Gospel:

Common Grace and the Gospel Cornelius Van Til, K. Scott Oliphint, 2015-03 What Point of Contact does the Christian have with the world in order to bring the biblical message to the nonbeliever How can the doctrines of election and total depravity be reconciled with human responsibility and the universal offer of the gospel Does our Lord show favor to saint and sinner alike Restoring and retypesetting the full text of the original 1972 edition this collection of annotated essays addresses these questions and more on common grace and its relevance to the gospel A pioneer in presuppositional apologetics Van Til sets forth a Christian philosophy of history examines the views of Abraham Kuyper Herman Hoeksema and others and replies to criticism A foreword and explanatory notes by K Scott Oliphint further illuminate his work Book jacket Common Grace George Melvyn Ella, 2004-01-01 All That God Cares About Richard J. Mouw, 2020-06-16 How do Christians account for the widespread presence of goodness in a fallen world Richard Mouw one of the most influential evangelical voices in America presents his mature thought on the topic of common grace Addressing a range of issues relevant to engaging common grace in the 21st century Mouw shows how God takes delight in all things that glorify him even those that happen beyond the boundaries of the church and defends the doctrine of common grace from its detractors Common Grace (Volume 3) Abraham Kuyper, 2020-08-26 God's Gifts for a Fallen World Common Grace is often considered Abraham Kuyper's crowning work an exploration of how God expresses grace even to the unsaved Kuyper firmly believed that though many people in the world will remain unconverted God's grace is still shown to the world as a whole In this third and final volume of Common Grace Kuyper brings his argument to its logical completion by turning to practical implications With detailed explorations on matters of church and state family upbringing and society Kuyper provides practical guidance for all who desire to flourish within the created order a world in which God's grace is generously given to all He Shines in All That's Fair Richard J. Mouw, 2002-08-23 How do Christians account for the widespread presence of goodness in a fallen world Different theological perspectives have presented a range of answers to this fundamental question over the centuries In He Shines in All That's Fair Richard Mouw brings the historic insights of Calvinism to bear on this question and reinterprets them for a broader audience at the turn of the twenty first century Mouw examines long standing Reformed arguments between those who champion the doctrine of common grace and those who emphasize an antithesis between the church and the world Defenders of common grace account for the goodness in the world by insisting that God's grace goes beyond salvation to more general gifts of beauty virtue and excellence to all human beings including those who do not believe in God Those who reject the doctrine of common grace on the other hand emphasize the fallenness of the world and the need for the church to maintain a dramatic contrast to it These divergent theological perspectives while seemingly remote and abstract lead to questions with very practical implications What common ground do Christians share with those outside the faith How should Christians treat their non Christian neighbors How should Christians relate to the world around them Does God disapprove when Christians form close friendships with people who are of the world Ought Christians to identify with the joys and sorrows of those who do not confess Christ as their Savior and Lord In the course of this book Mouw looks at these topics connecting the larger theological discussions to pressing issues in contemporary society He insists that we have much to learn from thinkers who have rejected the idea of common non saving grace but he also defends the traditional common grace teachings showing how they provide an important basis for wrestling with key challenges in present day culture Ultimately Mouw argues forcefully for a Calvinism that is capable of standing in awe before the mysteries of God s gracious dealings with all human beings and indeed the whole creation Presented as the 2000 Stob Lectures at Calvin College and Calvin Theological Seminary these soundly reasoned elegantly written chapters offer an updated robust understanding of common grace that will be of great value to anyone interested in the relation of church and culture     Eyes to See Tim Muehlhoff,2021-12-14 When we encounter suffering or tragedy we wonder Where is God If God exists then why doesn t he show himself Tim Muehlhoff unpacks the doctrine of common grace and offers examples from contemporary culture to uncover how God is present and working in ordinary everyday places Discover how God cares for our troubled world as he gives you eyes to see     Common Grace Abraham Kuyper,2016-03-24 In Common Grace Abraham Kuyper presents a constructive public theology of cultural engagement rooted in the humanity Christians share with the rest of the world He addresses a gap in the development of Reformed teaching on divine grace and he articulates a Reformed understanding of God s gifts that are common to all people after the fall into sin This first volume contains Kuyper s demonstration of common grace in its origin and operation This new translation of Common Grace created in partnership with the Kuyper Translation Society and the Acton Institute is part of a major series of new translations of Kuyper s most important writings The Abraham Kuyper Collected Works in Public Theology marks a historic moment in Kuyper studies aimed at deepening and enriching the church s development of public theology     Modern Chinese Theologies Chloë Starr,2023-10-31 The majority of Christians in China over the course of the last century have worshipped not in missionary founded churches or in congregations affiliated with the contemporary Three Self Patriotic Movement or Chinese Catholic Patriotic Association but in independent and unregistered churches often labeled house churches From the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements within the mission church landscape of the early twentieth century to the Calvinist Reformed movement in the present day Protestant church the vibrant faith life and extraordinary church growth of this sector of Chinese Christianity offer a fascinating witness and lesson to the world church Yet despite the size of their congregations and the spread of their teachings the theologies of these independent and unregistered churches have drawn much less academic attention than those of mission church or state church theologians This volume presents a selection of new studies on house church theologians and theologies These begin in the early twentieth century with studies of the Spiritual Gifts movement in Shandong and the nature of Pentecostalism in Hong Kong and arrive in the present with essays on the changing role of women s leadership in the church given the spread of Reformed thought and the theological implications of Westminsterian Neo Calvinism in China The second section of the volume is devoted to the theological writings and lives of the two most prominent independent church figures of the twentieth century Wang Mingdao and Ni Tuosheng Watchman Nee These chapters include studies of spiritual theology of Ni s doctrine of humanity his views on salvation and his prison letters and of Wang Mingdao s life and moral thought his Confucian beliefs and his understanding of the relationship of Christians to the state The third section of the volume foregrounds church voices like the fundamentalist Samuel Lamb and the mediating figure Yang Shaotang and considers local developments in Roman Catholicism in light of Vatican reforms
