Pinterest Reading Challenge Media Sensation:

Literature and Social Media Bronwen Thomas, 2020-01-31 From Instapoetry to BookTube contemporary literary cultures and practices are increasingly intertwined with social media In this lively and wide ranging study Bronwen Thomas explores how social media provides new ways of connecting with and rediscovering established literary works and authors while also facilitating the emergence of unique and distinctive forms of creative expression The book takes a 360 approach to the subject combining analysis of current forms and practices with an examination of how social media fosters ongoing collaborative discourse amongst both informal and formal literary networks and demonstrating how the participatory practices of social media have the potential to radically transform how literature is produced shared and circulated The first study of its kind to focus specifically on social media Literature and Social Media provides a timely and engaging account of the state of the art while interrogating the rhetoric that so often accompanies discussion of the new in this context

Postfeminist Celebrity and Motherhood Jorie Lagerwey, 2016-09-01 This book analyzes the intersections of celebrity self branding and mommy culture It examines how images of celebrity moms playing versions of themselves on reality television social media

gossip sites and self branded retail outlets negotiate the complex demands of postfeminism and the current fashion for heroic labor intensive parenting The cultural regime of new momism insists that women be expert in both affective and economic labor producing loving families self brands based on emotional connections with consumers and lucrative saleable commodities Successfully creating all three a self brand a style of motherhood and lucrative product sales is represented as the only path to fulfilled adult womanhood and citizenship The book interrogates the classed and racialized privilege inherent in those success stories and looks for ways that the versions of branded motherhood represented as failures might open a space for a more inclusive emergent feminism
