Gaetana Marrone, 2007 Publisher description Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone, Paolo Puppa, 2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children s literature food and vernacular literatures Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars Sappho and Catullus in Twentieth-Century Italian and North American Poetry Cecilia

Piantanida, 2021-01-14 Going beyond exclusively national perspectives this volume considers the reception of the ancient Greek poet Sappho and her first Latin translator Catullus as a literary pair who transmit poetic culture across the world from the early 20th century to the present Sappho s and Catullus reception has shaped a transnational network of poets and intellectuals helping to define ideas of origins gender sexuality and national identities This book shows that across time and cultures translations and rewritings of Sappho and Catullus articulate modernist poetics of myth and fragmentation forms of confessionalism and post modern pastiche The inquiry focuses on Italian and North American poetry as two central yet

understudied hubs of Sappho's and Catullus modern reception also linked by a rich mutual intellectual exchange key case studies include Giovanni Pascoli Ezra Pound H D Salvatore Quasimodo Robert Lowell Rosita Copioli and Anne Carson and cover a wide range of unpublished archival material Texts are analysed and compared through reception and translation theories and inserted within the current debate on the Classics as World Literature demonstrating how sustained transnational poetic discourse employs the ancient pair to expand notions of literary origins and redefine poetry's relationship to human existence
