Böhme employs a rich contemplative prose that reflects the early 17th century's burgeoning interest in mystical thought and spiritual awakenings. Excerpt: Nature a sort of image of itself whereby only it can be kept in its due subordination that which is below being made subservient to that which is above and that which is without to that which is within. Thus there will be no danger of interfering but all will go right and everything abide in its proper sphere. Disciple: Therefore without Reason or the Light of Nature be sanctified in my soul and illuminated by this superior Light as from the central East of the holy Light World by the Eternal and Intellectual Sun I perceive there will always be some confusion and I shall never be able to manage aright either what concerneth Time or Eternity. But I must always be at a loss or break the links of Wisdom's Chain Master. It is even so as them hast said All is confusion if thou hast no more than the dim Light of Nature or unsanctified and unregenerated Reason to guide thee by and if only the Eye of Time be opened in thee which cannot pierce beyond its own limit. Wherefore seek the Fountain of Light waiting in the deep ground of thy soul for the rising there of the Sun of Righteousness whereby the Light of Nature in thee with the properties thereof will be made to shine seven times brighter than ordinary. For it shall receive the stamp image and impression of the Supersensual and Supernatural so that the sensual and rational life will hence be brought into the most perfect order and harmony. Disciple: But how am I to wait for the rising of this glorious Sun and how am I to seek in the Centre this Fountain of Light which may enlighten me throughout and bring my properties into perfect harmony? I am in Nature as I said before and which way shall I pass through Nature and the light thereof so that I may come into the

Complete Hypnotism, Mesmerism, Mind-Reading and Spiritualism A. Alpheus, 2019-11-20 In Complete Hypnotism Mesmerism Mind Reading and Spiritualism A. Alpheus intricately weaves together the threads of psychological inquiry and metaphysical exploration. This work serves as a comprehensive treatise on the then nascent fields of hypnotism and spiritualism employing a clear and engaging literary style that invites readers into the mysteries of the human mind. Alpheus elucidates the intricate connections between hypnosis, mesmerism, and the burgeoning interest in mental phenomena of the late 19th century, situating his discourse within the cultural context of an era fascinated by the limits of consciousness and psychic interaction. A. Alpheus, whose background as a practitioner and theorist of hypnotism provides him with unique insights, draws on both scientific principles and anecdotal evidence to craft a compelling narrative. His experiences with the practice alongside the intellectual climate of his time shaped his exploration of consciousness, offering readers a rare glimpse into the spiritual and psychological dimensions of human experience. Alpheus' expertise in these subjects reflects not only his dedication but also the eclectic influences of contemporaries such as Mesmer and the burgeoning psychical research movement. This seminal work is a must-read for anyone interested in the realms of psychological phenomena and spiritual inquiry. By blending empirical observation with the mysterious allure of the unknown, Alpheus not only educates but also inspires curiosity about the mind's potential. Whether you are a scholar, a practitioner, or an inquisitive layperson, Complete Hypnotism Mesmerism Mind Reading and Spiritualism will expand your understanding of these compelling subjects

The Philosophy Which Shows the Physiology of Mesmerism and Explains the Phenomenon of Clairvoyance T. H. Pasley, 2022-06-03 In The Philosophy Which Shows the Physiology of Mesmerism and Explains the Phenomenon of Clairvoyance T. H. Pasley delves into the intricate relationship between mesmerism, a popular 19th-century practice, and its physiological implications. This scholarly work combines rigorous scientific inquiry with philosophical reflections, positioning itself within the rich intellectual milieu of the time that sought to bridge the gap between empiricism and metaphysical speculation. Pasley's exploration not only explicates the mechanisms underlying mesmerism but also addresses the enigmatic experiences of clairvoyance, prompting readers to reconsider the boundaries of consciousness and perception. T. H. Pasley was a noted figure in the fields of psychology and metaphysics, deeply influenced by the scientific discoveries and philosophical debates of his era. His background in medicine and fascination with the mind-body connection sparked his pursuit of understanding how mesmerism could elucidate broader philosophical questions. This inquiry was undoubtedly shaped by contemporary movements in psychology as well as prevailing interests in spiritualism and the human psyche, making his work a significant contribution to these domains. I wholeheartedly recommend Pasley's insightful work to scholars and general readers alike who are eager to explore the intersections of science, philosophy, and the mystical undercurrents of human experience. Its historical context provides invaluable perspectives on both mesmerism and the evolving understanding of consciousness.
