EU Foreign Policy and Hamas Adeeb Ziadah,2017-10-20 Shortly after the overwhelming victory of Hamas in the 2006 parliamentary and municipal elections civil war broke out in the Gaza Strip between members of the two factions Hamas and Fatah The EU along with the US UN and Russia not only gave its support to Fatah against Hamas but also imposed a tough siege on the Hamas government in an attempt to force it to accept the Quartet s political conditions described by Hamas leaders as unfair and impossible Many observers are convinced that the EU s behaviour in this matter has been unreasonable and has conflicted with the EU s own democratic beliefs and values This book sheds light on the EU s policies in Palestine mainly from 2003 2013 and provides a thorough examination of the inconsistencies and paradoxes in the EU discourse towards Hamas and the determinants underlying such contradictions It explores the reasons behind the EU labelling the Hamas a terrorist organization and discusses why the EU has boycotted its democratically elected body since 2006 Significantly the book looks at whether the EU jeopardized its reputation and contravened its core normative values and objectives democracy promotion human rights the rule of law and fundamental freedoms by such a categorisation of Hamas Exploring the EU's policy towards Hamas is vital for understanding how the relationship between the EU and the rest of the Islamists in the Middle East is perceived as it enables both sides to have a cognitive basis upon which to construct better relations This book based upon a vast spread of primary EU documents and interviews will therefore be a valuable resource for those studying the Arab Israeli conflict Political Islamic movements the Middle East Peace Process and anyone with an interest in European Union Foreign Policy Historical Dictionary of the Arab-Israeli Conflict P R Kumaraswamy,2015-10-08 Competing Jewish and Arab national claims over the Holy Land form the core of the Arab Israeli conflict thereby transforming it into the most intensely fought struggles in the history of humanity The conflict evokes unparalleled passion and hostility not only among its immediate participants and neighbors but also in the wider international community The involvement of three principal monotheistic religions makes the conflict a truly universal contestation As a result it often contributes to bouts of violence turmoil and terrorism in the Middle East and beyond This second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Arab Israeli Conflict covers the history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries important events key personalities official positions of principal states and the UN and other efforts to find a peaceful settlement This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this conflict Maven in Blue Jeans Steven L. subject of peace activism in Israel Palestine one of the most significant political issues of our time while also posing more general questions about the role played by language in activist movements how activists themselves conceptualize their speech and its relationship to action Viewing activism as a globalized cultural formation that gives shape and meaning to grassroots organizations struggles for political change this book explores the relations between the cultural categories of speech and action as constructed and evaluated in activist contexts It focuses on the specific empirical field of defiant discourse associated with the soldierly role in Israeli culture using it to offer an in depth exploration of the cultural underpinnings of defiant speech Katriel interrogates discourse centered activism as part of social movements action repertoires on the one hand and of the local cultural construction of speech cultures on the other This is critical reading for all students and scholars studying activism and social movements within linguistics Middle Eastern studies peace studies and communication studies
