Dialogue Science Religion France:

After Science and Religion Peter Harrison, John Milbank, Paul G. Tyson, 2022-05-19 A ground breaking volume of innovative conversations between science and religion which move beyond hackneyed positions of either conflict or dialogue

The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, 1906      Christianity John Chathanatt, 2024-01-08 Published in the Series Encyclopedia of Indian Religions this volume is devoted to Christianity in India where it has had a long presence going back to the time of the apostles of Jesus Christ. It focuses on the history, origin, organizations, and local engagements, belief system, worship practices, Rites, Rituals, Christian life, Contributions, Spirituality, and a few of the main doctrinal and theological items. It further examines the earlier phase of the history of Christianity starting with the traditional belief of the arrival of St. Thomas in AD 52, moving to the periods of its association with the Chaldean church, the Portuguese, the Dutch, English, and so on. This volume highlights the missionary activities of persons like St. Francis Xavier, the creative contributions made to the inter-religious dialogue by such people as Roberto de Nobili (1577-1656) and Swami Abhishiktananda (1910-1973), the linguistic and educational contributions of some of the pioneers like the German Jesuit Johanne Ernst Hanxleden known as Arnos Padiri (1681-1732), Herman Gundert (1814-1893), St. Elias Kuriakos Chavara (1805-1871), and a fortiori the enormous contributions in the healthcare area throughout the country. Caring for and serving the socio-economically marginalized ones, the peripheralized people formed an integral part of the Christian activity in India as it is done even today. This is highlighted very much in the volume. It further explores the contact India had with European Christianity, showing that European Christianity proved to have wider influence in the Northern part of India unlike India's early episodic encounters with Palestinian and Persian forms of Christianity which had deep influence in the Southern part of India. The volume also highlights the inner struggle among the followers resulting even in its division originating at the Synod of Diamper in 1599, manifesting by and large the Church-state love and hate relationships. In fine, in spite of the drawbacks of putting the Herculean task of two thousand years of history in eight hundred pages or so, this volume gives a rather comprehensive view of Christianity in India especially to those who are unfamiliar with its life and dynamics in the Indian context. The wide range of photographs (325 of them) especially of the churches revealing the architectural beauty and multiplicity along with the ensemble of art and paintings and pilgrimage centers adds to the enrichment of the volume.

The Dialogue in Early Modern France, 1547-1630 Colette H. Winn, 1993 This collection of essays is the first to combine in depth both theory and practice and to offer close readings of French texts written in dialogue form between 1547 and 1630. It seeks to determine why dialogue was used so widely in the Renaissance when the dominant authorities were for mid and late sixteenth century France how the dialogue related to other forms of discourse what the rules of the genre were and whether dialogue should even be regarded as a genre. Contributors: Donald Gilman, Colette H. Winn, Joan A. Buhmann, Cathy Yandell, Ann Rosalind Jones, Paula Sommers, Eva Kushner.
