Diamonds in Darkness Pamela Bowers,2011-05 Trapped in the worst way possible bleeding raw and angry the frightened wild dog is confronted by a stranger who takes her in This kind individual replaces the dog s constant chaos pain and fear with lessons of trust and love Have you been ensnared by past or current pain Is it actually possible to find new light in the experiences of trauma that are common to all of us at various points in our lives Can the aftermath of a physical or emotional shipwreck actually contain shards of truth and bring restoration to broken hearts and minds In Diamond in Darkness author Pamela Bowers uses the story of the journey of a dog Man and a few friends along with personal experiences and biblical references to help readers find a way out of pain and into a new life Viewing pain from a different perspective can be the first step to a place of peace refreshment and new joy When mired in the darkness it can be almost impossible to envision a time when one feels safe and happy But as readers of Diamond in Darkness healing can take place As Man says The best healing takes place when mind and heart work together in the task
