Canadian Battlefields J. R. Wilkinson, 2015-07-13 Excerpt from Canadian Battlefields And Other Poems In submitting Canadian Battlefields and Other Poems to a discerning public I realize it may be marred by many errors the harp may not always be in tune some chords may jar upon the fastidious ear Rhythm and harmony may not always present that mysterious appeal to the soul that approves and proves the worth of all Yet withal I feel that some thoughts and emotions of patriotism love of home the song of nature the mystery of creation and the impenetrable depths of infinitude may be found and approved The subtle voice of nature the voices of love home and country have ever appealed to me and impelled me to sing my humble song And thus in doubt and uncertainty I cast it out on the world the reading critical public asking that the pure white veil of charity may conceal its rough edges and inequalities Seek but to benefit thy fellowman Let smiles not frowns his rugged path assail Better with blinded eyes his faults to scan Than let the sin of wrong and scorn prevail J R Wilkinson About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Other Poems (Classic Reprint) Katharine Leila Johnston,2016-11-23 Excerpt from Over the Threshold and Other Poems It is indeed a very great pleasure to me to be permitted to write a few brief words by way of introduction to Miss Johnston's little volume of verse In doing so it is not at all necessary that I should attempt any eulogy of her work For it will speak for itself to every one who opens these pages More effectively than I could speak or it It will be apparent at once that she writes with charm and insight and the true artist's gift And has produced verse that makes a real addition to our Canadian literature And will stand the test of the years May there be much more of it Miss Johnston is thoroughly Canadian Having been born in the city of Toronto and lived most of her life there She has travelled and has been all her life an earnest student of literature
