So Great a Salvation Gene L. Green, Stephen T. Pardue, K. K. Yeo, 2017-10-30 In So Great a Salvation nine scholars from the global church reflect on soteriology in the Majority World The doctrine of salvation is not a mere theological construct but rather a matter of eternal life and death that should not be treated lightly as is often the case Taking African Asian Latin American and First Nations cultural contexts into account this book allows readers to see God's creative deliverance in a fresh light

Nouveau-riche Nationalism and Multiculturalism in Korea Gil-Soo Han, 2015-09-07 The unprecedented economic success of South Korea since the 1990s has led in turn to a large increase in the number of immigrants and foreign workers in Korean industries This book describes and explains the experiences of discrimination and racism that foreigners and new Koreans have faced in a multicultural South Korea It looks at how society has treated the foreigners and what their experiences have been given that common discourse about race in Korea surrounds issues of Korean heterogeneity and pure blood nationalism Starting with critiques of Korean scholarship and policy framework on multiculturalism this book argues for the need to revisit the most fundamental aspect of multiculturalism the host population's ability to respect newcomers rather than discriminate against them The author employs a critical realist understanding of racism and attempts to identify long lasting institutional factors which make Korean society less than welcoming new or temporary Koreans A large number of new reportages are identified and systematically analysed based on the principles of grounded theory method The findings show that nouveau riche nationalism and pure blood nationalism are widely practised when Koreans deal with foreigners As a newly industrialised and highly successful nation Korean society is still in transition and treats foreigners according to economic standard of their countries of origin As one of the very first books in English about foreigners experiences of Korean nationalism multiculturalism and discrimination it will be of great interest to students and scholars of Sociology Ethnic studies Asian studies Korean studies Media studies and Cultural studies experiences of Korean women are examined through the method of life story discourse level analysis is employed to describe the experiences of women in Luke Acts The dissertation is organized in two parts In the first part a biblical narrative is presented The social and cultural contexts of Luke Acts are examined to provide a better understanding of the stories of women The themes and patterns in the Luke Acts stories are shown through discourse level analysis The second part features a Korean narrative The socio cultural context of the first generation Korean immigrant women in mission is also presented Each person s theme in her life story is traced and similarities and patterns among all the women s life stories are explored This dissertation demonstrates how the women s experiences of exclusion bring the real issues of life to the surface and how the women reach maturity through their exclusion experiences in order to embrace their oppressors The women s experiences of exclusion play a significant role in their embracing the Kingdom of God The women s experience of exclusion opens the door to the development of their spirituality which transforms their lives Embrace as a metaphor of reconciliation comes out of spirituality
