

CONSTRUCTIVE TRUSTS

1. "A constructive trust is the formula through which the conscience of equity finds expression. When property has been acquired in such circumstances that the holder of the legal title may not in good conscience retain the beneficial interest, equity converts him into a trustee"- per Cardozo J. in Beatty v Guggenheim (1919) 225 N.Y. 380.

With reference to relevant cases, discuss the established categories of constructive trusts as envisaged by the above statement.

4.2 Constructive Trust

- Constructive trust arises where no trust has directly or indirectly been declared, but where it would be a fraud or unconscionable for the person on whom the court imposes the trust to assert a beneficial ownership.
- Constructive trust is imposed by law irrespective of the intention of the parties while a resulting trust is based on the intention of the parties.

4.2.1 Definition of Constructive Trust

Paragon Finance v DB Thakerar [1999] 1 All ER 400

- Constructive trust arises by operation of law¹ whenever the circumstances are such that it would be unconscionable for the owner of the property to assert his own beneficial interest in the property and deny the beneficial interest of another.

4.2.2 When does Constructive Trust arise?

Westdeutsche Landesbank v Islington

- The local authority had no relevant knowledge sufficient to raise a constructive trust at any time before the moneys, upon the bank account going into overdraft, became untraceable. Once there ceased to be an identifiable trust fund, the local authority could not become a trustee.
- Constructive arises when the party became aware of the breach or unjust enrichment he obtained.
- Since equity operates on the conscience of the legal owner, he cannot be constructive trustee of the property if so long he is ignorant of the facts that allegedly affect his conscience.

4.2.2.1 Institutional Constructive Trust

- Arises by operation of law as from the date of the circumstances which make the property owner liable to the constructive trust over his property.
- The Court does not impose the trust but merely declare that the beneficiaries enjoy proprietary interest in the property from the time the relevant events occurred.

¹ Unlike private trust that arises from settlor's express intention and resulting trust that arises from settlor's presumed intention.
