Fischer, 2009 Spanish Golden Age plays take their place at the forefront of world theatre Oscar Wilde once observed that it is the spectator and not life that art really mirrors This thought is borne out in this volume which brings together two different and often mutually exclusive constituencies the academic critic and the theatre practitioner In looking at the ways in which theatre is a barometer of society the essays in this book form part of a larger theoretical inquiry into performance as interpretation contingent upon the cultural context Engaging with theoretical approaches to culture and theoreticians from Elam to Brook and from Derrida to Bakhtin the author analyzes in detail productions of plays by Lope de Vega Tirso de Molina and Calder n dela Barca as well as an adaptation of Rojas Celestina on the Spanish or French or Anglo American stage Two chapters deal with appropriations of Shakespeare s Merchant of Venice in translation on the Spanish and French boards As they read performance in trans national productions these essays are not only at the cutting edge of theatre studies on the foreign stage but they also bring Spanish Golden Age plays long neglected by professional directors of the classics because of the lack of a continuous performance tradition closer to assuming their rightful place amongst the great theatre of the world SUSAN L FISCHER is Professor of Spanish and Comparative Literature at Bucknell University British Museum British Museum (Londen), 1883
