El Paso Local Frontiers At A Global Crossroads Globalization And Community:

El Paso, 2004 Struggling Giants Paul Kantor, Christian Lefèvre, Asato Saito, H. V. Savitch, Andy Thornley, 2012 The struggle for governability in the world's four leading global city regions Mobile Urbanism Eugene McCann, Kevin Ward, 2011 How knowledge and power flow between places and impact cities worldwide Turkish Berlin Annika Marlen Hinze, 2013-08-01 The integration of immigrants into a larger society begins at the local level Turkish Berlin reveals how integration has been experienced by second generation Turkish immigrant women in two neighborhoods in Berlin Germany While the neighborhoods are similar demographically the lived experience of the residents is surprisingly different Informed by first person interviews with both public officials and immigrants Annika Marlen Hinze makes clear that local integration policies often created by officials who have little or no contact with immigrants have significant effects on the assimilation of outsiders into a community and a society Focusing on the Turkish neighborhoods of Kreuzberg and Neukölln Hinze shows how a combination of local policy making and grassroots organizing have contributed to one neighborhood earning a reputation as a hip multicultural success story and the other as a rougher neighborhood featuring problem schools and high rates of unemployment Aided by her interviews she describes how policy makers draw from their imaginations of urban space immigrants and integration to develop policies that do not always take social realities into consideration She offers useful examples of how official policies can actually exacerbate the problems they are trying to help solve and demonstrates that a powerful history of grassroots organizing and resistance can have an equally strong impact on political outcomes Employing spatial theory as a tool for understanding the complex processes of integration Hinze asks two related questions How do immigrants perceive themselves and their experiences in a new culture And how are immigrants conceived of by politicians and policy makers Although her research highlights the German Turk experience in Berlin her answers have implications that resonate far beyond the city's limits The Fragmented Politics of Urban Preservation Yue Zhang, 2013-08-01 While urban preservation is almost as old as cities themselves it has become increasingly controversial in modern cities In this book Yue Zhang presents a cross national comparative analysis of the politics of urban preservation Based on comprehensive archival research and more than two hundred in depth interviews in Beijing Chicago and Paris Zhang finds that urban preservation provides a tool for diverse political and social actors to frame their propositions and advance their favored courses of action In cities from West to East divergent political and economic interests have caused urban preservation to become contested Exploring three of the world's great cities Zhang deftly navigates readers through each case study illustrating the complexities of the politics of urban preservation in each city In Beijing urban preservation was integral to promoting economic growth and enhancing the city's image during the lead up to the 2008 Olympics in Chicago it is used to increase property values and revitalize neighborhoods and in Paris it offers a channel for national and municipal governments to compete for control over urban space Although urban preservation serves various purposes in these cities Zhang explains how different types of political fragmentation have affected the implementation of preservation initiatives in predictable ways thus generating distinct patterns of urban preservation A comparative urban politics study of unusual breadth The Fragmented Politics of Urban Preservation gives us insight into the complex policy process of urban preservation through which political institutions are intertwined with interests and inclinations fundamentally shaping the direction of urban development the physical forms of cities and the lives of citizens Deconstructing Eurocentric Tourism and Heritage Narratives in Mexican American Communities Frank G. Perez, Carlos F. Ortega, 2019-09-24 This book attempts to dismantle the unfounded Eurocentric view of US born and immigrant Mexican peoples that groups together the identities of Latinx Chicanx and other indigenous peoples of the Southwest into Hispanics whose contributions to the cultural historical and social development of the Southwest are marginalized or made non existent The narrative and performative legacies that tourism and fantasy heritage produce are promulgated and consumed by both Latinx and non Latinx peoples and cultures This book endeavors to expose these productions through analysis of on the ground resistance in the service and spirit of intercultural dialogue and change This book will offer a precise set of recommendations for breaking away from these practices and thus forming new veritable identities With a strongly heritage oriented discourse this book on deconstructing Eurocentric representation of Mexican people and their culture will appeal to academics and scholars of heritage tourism Chicano studies Southwest studies and Native American studies courses The Durable Slum Liza Weinstein, 2014-04-01 In the center of Mumbai next to the city s newest and most expensive commercial developments lies one of Asia s largest slums where as many as one million squatters live in makeshift housing on one square mile of government land This is the notorious Dharavi district best known from the movie Slumdog Millionaire In recent years cities from Delhi to Rio de Janeiro have demolished similar slums at times violently evicting their residents to make way for development But Dharavi and its residents have endured for a century holding on to what is now some of Mumbai s most valuable land In The Durable Slum Liza Weinstein draws on a decade of work including more than a year of firsthand research in Dharavi to explain how despite innumerable threats the slum has persisted for so long achieving a precarious stability She describes how economic globalization and rapid urban development are pressuring Indian authorities to eradicate and redevelop Dharavi and how political conflict bureaucratic fragmentation and community resistance have kept the bulldozers at bay Today the latest ambitious plan for Dharavi s transformation has been stalled yet the threat of eviction remains and most residents and observers are simply waiting for the project to be revived or replaced by an even grander scheme Dharavi s remarkable story presents important lessons for a world in which most population growth happens in urban slums even as brutal removals increase From Nairobi s Kibera to Manila s Tondo megaslums may be more durable than they appear their residents retaining a fragile but hard won right to stay put Border Women and the Community of Maclovio Rojas Michelle Téllez, 2021-10-12 Near Tijuana Baja California the autonomous community of Maclovio Rojas demonstrates what is possible for urban place based political movements More than a community Maclovio Rojas is a women led social movement that works for economic and political autonomy to address issues of health education housing nutrition and security Border Women and the Community of Maclovio Rojas tells the story of the community s struggle to carve out space for survival and thriving in the shadows of the U S Mexico geopolitical border This ethnography by Michelle T llez demonstrates the state s neglect in providing social services and local infrastructure This neglect exacerbates the structural violence endemic to the border region a continuation of colonial systems of power on the urban rural and racialized poor T llez shows that in creating the community of Maclovio Rojas residents have challenged prescriptive notions of nation and belonging Through women s active participation and leadership a women s political subjectivity has emerged Maclovianas These border women both contest and invoke their citizenship as they struggle to have their land rights recognized and they transform traditional political roles into that of agency and responsibility This book highlights the U S Mexico borderlands as a space of resistance conviviality agency and creative community building where transformative politics can take place It shows hope struggle and possibility in the context of gendered violences of racial capitalism on the Mexican side of the U S Mexico border
