A History of Spanish Film Sally Faulkner,2013-04-11

A History of Spanish Film explores Spanish film from the beginnings of the industry to the present day by combining some of the most exciting work taking place in film studies with some of the most urgent questions that have preoccupied twentieth century Spain It addresses new questions in film studies like prestige film and middlebrow cinema and places these in the context of a country defined by social mobility including the 1920s industrial boom the 1940s post Civil War depression and the mass movement into the middle classes from the 1960s onwards Close textual analysis of some 42 films from 1910 2010 provides an especially useful avenue into the study of this cinema for the student Uniquely offers extensive close readings of 42 films which are especially useful to students and teachers of Spanish cinema Analyses Spanish silent cinema and films of the Franco era as well as contemporary examples Interrogates film s relations with other media including literature pictorial art and television Explores both auteur and popular cinemas Establishes prestige and the middlebrow as crucial new terms in Spanish cinema studies Considers the transnationality of Spanish cinema throughout its century of existence Contemporary directors covered in this book include Almod var Bolla n D az Yanes and more Arturo Pérez-Reverte Anne L. Walsh,2007 The complex narrative technique of one of Spain s most renowned contemporary authors The writings of Arturo P rez Reverte one of Spain s most renowned contemporary authors have been described as a minefield This monograph examines the complexities behind the narrative technique employed in creating such a minefield including an analysis of the role played by both male and female characters the relevance of the past as a motif and aspects of the role of storytelling in creating mystery where none should exist Both Revertian novelsand journalistic writing are seen to be part of an over all game which is played between their author and his readers Film too forms part of the material reviewed as though P rez Reverte is not a script writer many films have been based on his novels The text centred analysis concludes that the themes of interest in all Revertian output revolve around two main areas the significance of the past whether historical cultural or literary andthe role of the written word in communicating in rescuing and in challenging versions of that past in order to combat what P rez Reverte terms dismemory ANNE L WALSH lectures in Hispanic Studies at University College Cork Spain and Spanish America in the Libraries of the University of California: The Bancroft library University of California, Berkeley.
